For the information of the file, a review of the telephone directory for West Point, Miss., reflects that telephone number 494-2166 is registered to the Clay County Community Development Program, 328 Cottrell Street, West Point, Mississippi. Telephone number 494-5151 is registered to IKE CRAWFORD, 529 McClellan Street, West Point, Mississippi.

For the further information of the file, the Clay Community Development Program is a Negro organization in West Point, Mississippi, which is currently dedicated to obtaining job opportunities for Negroes in West Point, Mississippi. The program is run by JOHN BUFFINGTON. In 1967, 1968 and 1969 the Clay County Community Development Program was a source of civil rights problems for the West Point Police Department and Clay County SO. Activities concerning this organization are listed in the indices of the Jackson Office. Since that time the program has become a legitimate organization working for the advancement of blacks in West Point, Mississippi. The program is still run by JOHN BUFFINGTON; however, there have been no militant activities in the West Point, Miss., area for several years.

For further information of the file, IKE CRAWFORD is a 50 year old Negro male who is crippled. A review of the files of the West Point Police Department and Clay County Sheriff's Office was negative concerning any activities of CRAWFORD. BILLY BUSBY, COP, West Point PD, advised that IKE CRAWFORD has never been any sought of problem to the West Point Police Department and in the past has never been associated in any sort of civil rights or black militant programs. BUSBY further advised that there are currently no extremist activities going on at the Clay County Community Development Program.

In view of the above, there does not appear to be any militant affiliation and it is recommended that this matter be placed in a closed status. In the event any information is developed to the affect that the Clay County Community Development Program or IKE CRAWFORD is involved in any sort of extremist activities the matter will be reopened.
