Dear Mr. Travis:

Your letter of March 9th, with enclosure, has been received.

While I certainly would like to be of service to you, it is contrary to my long-standing policy to comment on, or recommend, books or material not prepared by me or personnel of the FBI. In addition, information contained in the files of the FBI must be maintained as confidential in accordance with regulations of the Department of Justice and is available for official use only. Therefore, I trust you will understand why I am not in a position to be of help in this instance and hope you will not infer either that we do or do not have data relating to the matter you mentioned.

Enclosed is some literature which I hope will be of interest.

Sincerely yours,

NOTE: Mr. Travis is not identifiable in Bufiles. Pete Seeger is known to the entertainment world as a singer of folk songs and a banjo player. He has been on world tours. He is a subject of Bufile 100-200845 reflecting an investigation in the category of Security Matter - C. He has been questioned by the House Committee on Un-American Activities and cited for contempt. "Through To Victory" and Paul C. Neipp are well known to the Bureau. Neipp has received prior cordial correspondence from the Bureau and he has recommended the John Birch Society publications for citizens' reading. His son is a fullleged supporter and worker for Dr. Fred Schwarz.

The Honorable Dr. J. Edgar Hoover, Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D. D.

Dear Dr. Hoover,

An evaluation by you of the material in the enclosed publication, Through to Victory, would be most deeply appreciated. I am especially vitally concerned about the article on page two which deals with Pete Seeger. I am the pastor of St. Peter's Lutheran Church, one of the congregations of The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod. The Walther League is the official youth organization of our church body. This explains my vital interest in learning whether or not the information on Pete Seeger contained in this publication is correct.

Your views on this paper in general would be most helpful. If Paul C. Neipp in Through to Victory is publishing factual truth, I, not only as a Christian pastor but also a dedicated American citizen, intend to do everything possible in assisting in the dissemination of that truth.

May I hear from you at your earliest convenience?

Respectfully,

Martin Luther Travis

THE STRANGE CASE OF THE COMMUNIST COLONIZERS

By Herbert A. Philbrick

A top government counterspy revealed secret communist colonizers holding vital jobs in the Buffalo, N.Y., area. The transcript of his testimony, together with the testimony of 14 unfriendly witnesses, was released last month. As yet, scant attention has been given by the press. Here is part of the untold, incredible story.

The municipality of Buffalo, N.Y., is the second largest city in the largest state in the union. Located at the hub of converging transportation lines by rail, waterways, superhighways and air, it boasts a vast industrial complex which turns out an enormous quantity of goods and products. Giant manufacturing plants spew forth steel, pig iron, rubber, plastics, lenses and textiles by the carload and shipload; it is a vital center for the production of airplanes, automobiles, machinery and metal products of all kinds and descriptions; oil refining and chemicals are also high on the list of Buffalo products.

Less than 20 miles away lies the gigantic new Niagara electric power production plant, which harnesses the awesome power of this nation's mightiest waterfall, which in turn supplies much of the total electric power used by the Empire State.

Because it takes men to man the machines and the furnaces, Buffalo also boasts one of the nation's largest supplies of trained and skilled craftsmen and workers.

By whatever yardstick one applies, it must be said that Buffalo, New York, is a key city, vital to the defense as well as to the economy of our nation.

So much for the brief background and setting of Buffalo.

Now let us do some "supposing." Specifically, let us imagine that we are still at war with Hitler Germany — (and to judge by the number of motion pictures today appearing on the theatre screens, on the theme of Nazism, you'd think we were). Let us further suppose that the Nazi enemy is still winning (as they were, for a while) on all fronts; that the fascist hordes had captured and enslaved most of Europe, the mainland of China, North Korea, North Vietnam; that Nazi occupation troops hold a powerful military base on the island of Cuba, equipped with launching pads and rockets armed with thermo-nuclear warheads; that the Nazi enemy has already captured and today controls one third of the world's land mass and one half of the world's civilized population.

Given these circumstances, can you picture in your mind's eye, the size and prominence of newspaper headlines across the country, if it were announced that a Congressional Committee had discovered secret, hard-core-Nazi Party members holding down jobs in various Buffalo firms, having infiltrated the industrial complex as fascist "colonizers"?

It so happens that last month a Congressional Committee did release to the press an amazing transcript of hearings conducted last spring in Buffalo, New York. The transcript identified and named nine communist colonizers; it also revealed communist infiltration into various organizations in the peace movement, fair housing and racial matters; and the report further revealed that two of the colonizers are now engaged in scientific research work supported and paid for by the United States Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

HERBERT A. PHILBRICK, famous for his service as a former counterspy for the F.B.I., and author of I LED THREE LIVES, still devotes a major portion of his time to the fight for freedom. Through many sources of information, on both sides of the iron curtain, he maintains close and continuing watch on the activities of the communists, their fellow-traveling supporters and allies who would destroy the freedom of all people.

Yet, so far as I know, few if any newspapers in the United States gave more than passing attention to the story. Indeed, at least one newspaper — the Buffalo Courier-Express — editorialized against the House investigating committee, and implied that the "right" of communist agents to infiltrate vital manufacturing plants had something to do with the exercise of civil liberties.

Thus lies, still largely untold, one of the most amazing stories of communist intrigue and duplicity, yet uncovered by the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

The Congressional Investigators Although the transcript has just been released, the hearings themselves were conducted over a two day period, on April 29 and 30, 1964. Presiding in the absence of Mr. Willis, the Chairman, was Congressman Joe R. Pool of Texas. Other Committee members present were August E. Johansen of Michigan;

AMERICAN EDUCATION BEING DE-CHRISTIANIZED

By Mark Fakkema

In this brief message we shall describe the Christian character of the early schools of America and incidentally call attention to the Christian character of our nation which gave rise to our erstwhile Christian schools.

The Christian character of a school depends upon: (1) the Christian character of its teachers and (2) the Christian character of its textbooks.

As to the type of teachers employed in the early days of our country, we can say that the teachers of those days had to pass a religious test before they were allowed to teach. These tests were administered by the clergy.

As to the type of textbooks used, we must note that the Bible was the chief text. The text that was generally used to teach the pupils how to read during the Colonial period was known as the New England Primer. More than three-fourths of the content of this book was taken from the Bible and the remaining fourth was spiritual and moral in character.

The Bible From A to Z

It may interest our readers to know how this textbook taught the A-B-C's. Each letter was introduced by a small picture and an accompanying statement that featured the letter to be taught. For example, the first letter "A" was taught by means of a picture showing Eve, a tree and a serpent. The accompanying statement read, "In Adam's fall we sinned all." The last letter "Z" was also introduced by a picture of a tree. In its branches was a man of small stature. The accompanying statement read, "Zachaeus he did climb a tree his Lord to see."

In 1647 the General Court of Massachusetts issued the following order: "It being the chief project of the old deluder, Satan, to keep men from the knowledge of the Scriptures, effort must be made to thwart this old deluder. It is therefore ordered that every township in this jurisdiction, after the Lord has increased it to the number of 50 households, shall then appoint one of their town to teach all such children as shall report to him to write and read."

It is not without a touch of irony that we must report that 300 years later — in the year 1948 — the Supreme Court of our land banished the teaching of religion from our public schools. Think of it, 300 years ago religious teaching was demanded by the Supreme Court of our New England Colony. Today our Supreme Court has outlawed the teaching of religion in the public schools of our land!"

Harvard in 1636

Think also of the conditions under which Mr. Harvard in 1636 endowed what is now Harvard University. In his bequest Mr. Harvard stated:

"Let every student be plainly instructed and earnestly pressed to consider well the main ends of his life and studies; to know God and Jesus Christ which is eternal life and therefore to lay Christ in the bottom as the only foundation of all knowledge and learning and see the Lord only giveth wisdom. Let everyone seriously set himself by prayer in secret to see Christ as Lord and Master."

Contrast this splendid Christian testimony with the thrust of a book recently published by the professors of this same Harvard University at the expense of some $60,000.00. This book is known as the Harvard Report. It states in effect that today we have advanced educationally to a point where God and Jesus Christ play no part in education. According to this report, the Bible is no authority in the field of educational endeavor. Today the religious emphasis prescribed by Harvard's Founder has become a

"STEEL CONCENTRATION:

"(1) Three basic industries, steel, railroad and mining. These are the basis to the national economy, that is if any one or all three are shut down by strike our economy is paralyzed. It is necessary for a Marxist Revolutionary Party to be rooted in these industries.

"(2) Steel is the biggest industry in the Buffalo area. The steel union is also key to the policy of the C.I.O. . . .

"(3) We must build a mass communist party rooted in the working class and particularly in the basic industries because the militancy and solid working class orientation of these workers is vital to the life and growth of our Party."

THE ATTACK ON THE FAITH GETS SAVAGE

Prof. Morton Scott Enslin, ABC Crozer Seminary, "I believe that many things which Jesus said were true, but not because He said them. I believe that the whole view of the holy history with its theory of a chosen people, special revelation, prophecies, is utterly unconvincing and basically vicious. I believe that beneath this whole superstructure of the 'divine plan of salvation' with its precise way in which God designs to save men, is but one solid foundation; namely, man's brave effort to save himself."

Another liberal: "The ideas of New Criticism and atomism are barbarous and inhuman. As liberals in religion, why should we commemorate the death of Jesus? Jesus is not the center of our religion. Why do we not commemorate the life of Emerson or Socrates or of Immanuel Kant?"

Prof. William E. Didge: "Sin itself is quest for God — a blundering quest but a quest for all that. The man who got drunk last night did so because of the impulse within him to break through the barriers of his limitations, to express himself and to realize the more abundant life. His self-indulgence just came to that; he wanted, if only for a brief hour, to live the larger life, to expand the soul, to enter untrodden regions, to gather to himself new experiences. That drunken debauch was a quest for life, a quest for God." These are quoted in Dr. W. A. Criswell's book, "These Issues We Must Face." — The Blu-Print, Nov. 1964.

The Editor Says . . .

Pete Seeger, Identified Communist, To Entertain at Walther League Convention

Southern California Leaguer, official organ of the Southern California District Walther League of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, carries this notice in its January 29, 1965, issue concerning the International Convention at Squaw Valley, California:

This year's convention will be very unique, highlighting the following features:

An Exodus theme

We'll have a "sit-in" with Israel and meet their God I AM. In a modern scene

We'll look at our own Pharaoh's and slavery, deliverance and freedom.

With old faces

Don Busarow, Norm Habel, Paul Harms — men with a yen for the Scriptures spoken in music and drama for the day.

With new faces

Ann Landers speaking to the call to be male and female. Folk singer PETE SEEGER providing a musical interlude. Paul Pfotenhauer and R. Z. Meyer reaching through to us in new forms of worship and Bible study.

Who Is Pete Seeger?

An organization, known as "Citizens Committee of California, Inc." has given us the following information:

Seeger is a sort of hill-billy "proletariat" who picks up a guitar and sings what he calls "people's songs." A few years ago, Seeger and some others organized "People's Songs, Inc." A Communist testifying before the House Committee on Un-American Activities (2/6/52) stated that the directors of the organization were "members of the Communist Party cell. . . ." At that time the House Committee's Counsel (Mr. Tavenner) identified "People's Songs" as "An organization which, according to its issues of February and March, 1947, was composed of a number of persons who have been called before this Committee or identified by this Committee as members of the Communist Party, and the purpose of which . . . was to extend services of the Communist Party in its entertainment projects." Seeger is the director of "People's Songs, Inc."

Dickson P. Hall, who operated within the Communist Party as an FBI undercover man, testified that the "Party has songs which are more or less traditional with people in struggle." They are used to animate and influence audiences. The Communists have long had a slogan "Art is a weapon" and have used musicians, writers, actors to serve their cause.

Pete Seeger was called before the House Committee on Un-American Activities (8/18/55) for interrogation about his affiliations. During the questioning he was asked whether or not he was a member of the Communist Party as of July 4, 1955, and when he refused to answer he was asked, "Are you a member of the Communist Party now?" Again he refused to answer the question (P. 2460 —HCUA Report, Aug. 18, 1955.)

Before the House Committee Seeger consistently refused responsive answers. He was asked if he put on his singing "concerts" to raise money for the Communist Party. He refused to answer. Other testimony has established that the Communists do promote certain "artists" and take a substantial slice of the receipts. This "People's Songs" project headed by Seeger has a long record of pro-Communist activity.

In its Annual Report of December 28, 1952, the House Committee on Un-American Activities said under its title "Communist Activities Among Youth Groups" that in entertainment, and the "folk song field" many of the songs "belong to the Communist-controlled 'People's Songs' which recently changed its name to 'People's Artists.'"

The records show that scores of announcements of Seeger's programs have appeared in the Daily Worker and other Communist papers over the years. The People's World (West Coast CP paper) on Feb. 8, 1959, carried a long article by old-time Communist writer Mike Gold titled "Paeon to Pete Seeger and American Music." He eulogized Seeger and described his dialectical-class singing technique. American Mercury magazine for July, 1959, says (p. 149) "Pete Seeger, Chattanooga guitarist-singer, who has taken part in Highlander Folk School activities, has been cited 66 times for subversive activities."

Out of what has been reported here, the question arises as to how Seeger who has been identified before the House Committee on Un-American Activities as "the best known of all the Communist Party's entertainers," could be engaged to play and sing for our Walther Leaguers? Just who is on the committee that selected Pete Seeger for this program? We would be happy if someone could furnish us with this information.

A Red Is A Red Is A Red

We must realize that we are at war with the communists. They know it for they started it. But many Americans treat these criminal conspirators as if they were reputable citizens of the U.S.A. Communists are Communists wherever they are! There is no such thing as a good Communist and a bad Communist. They all are the same for they all are taught and believe the same evil doctrines. There is no difference between a Soviet Communist, a Chinese Communist, a Viet Cong Communist, and an American Communist. They all are dedicated to the overthrow of all existing governments other than their own. World conquest is their goal. The destruction of all religions, especially the Christian religion, is an obsession with them.

Does anyone in his right mind believe for one moment that a Communist Youth Group would engage a true Christian Gospel singer to sing "Jesus Lover of My Soul" or "Jesus, Thy Blood and Righteousness" for any of their meetings? Or sing songs that would ridicule the Communist Party? Just so little should we condone the insanity of engaging an identified Communist to sing his brand of "folk songs" before our Christian young people. The Reds are no such fools. Why should we be?

If those responsible for putting Seeger on the Walther League Convention Program are allowed to get by with this, what will stop them from engaging Gus Hall, Frank Wilkinson, Herbert Aptheker, or some other identified Communist as key-note speaker for the next convention? And, judging by the way the Walther League official publication, Arena, has nose-dived from one of the finest, most conservative youth periodicals in the land with 70,000 paid subscribers under Dr. Walter A. Maier, to a third-rate propaganda medium with less than 6,000 subscribers under the present editorial policy, it certainly can happen at one of the not too far distant conventions. —P.C.N.

"Art Is A Weapon"

For those who do not believe that the Communists use "art as a weapon" — which is a Red slogan — consider the following from the Folk Singer's "Hit Parade:"

Jesus puts his money in the First National Bank;
Jesus puts his money in the First National Bank;
Jesus puts his money in the First National Bank;
Jesus saves, Jesus saves, Jesus saves.
(Tune: "Battle Hymn of the Republic.")

Hark! The herald angels sing,
Glory to the new-born thing,
Who, because of radiation,
Will be cared for by the nation.

Christianity hits the spot;
Twelve apostles, that's a lot;
Holy Ghost and a virgin, too;
Christianity is the thing for you.
(Tune: Pepsi Cola Jingle.)

Or consider this song, written to the tune of "Billy Boy," which ridicules one of our first lines of defense in time of cold war — the House Committee on Un-American Activities — which the Reds are determined to destroy so that factual information about Communists can no longer be accumulated and made public so that America may know:

Did they wash you down the stair, Billy Boy, Billy Boy,
Did they wash you down the stair, Charming Billy?
Yes, they washed me down the stair,
And they rearranged my hair
With a club, in the city hall rotunda.

Were there pigeons in the square, Billy Boy, Billy Boy,
Were there pigeons in the square, Charming Billy?
There were pigeons in the square,
And stool pigeons on the air,
And they fouled up the city hall rotunda.

Did they set for you a chair, Billy Boy, Billy Boy,
Did they set for you a chair, Charming Billy?
No the D.A.R. was there,
And there wasn't room to spare,
So we stood in the city hall rotunda.

Was the house committee there, Billy Boy, Billy Boy,
Was the house committee there, Charming Billy?
The committee, it was there,
Throwing slander everywhere,
While we sang in the city hall rotunda.

Did the people think it fair, Billy Boy, Billy Boy,
Did the people think it fair, Charming Billy?
No they didn't think it fair,
And they notified the Mayor,
And he wept, and he wept,
And he wept, and he wept,
While they mopped up the city hall rotunda.

This version of "Billy Boy" appeared in Sing Out, an alleged folk song magazine of which identified Communist Pete Seeger is an associate editor.

Red Tactics

If Pete Seeger runs true to form, he will get our Leaguers to join him in singing some songs. Whenever this is done, it brings about a feeling of harmony and closeness between the

PRAYER

Dear Father in heaven, we come to Thee with the heavy burdens that lie upon our hearts. Even though over one-third of the world is already under Communist domination, millions of Americans are too blind to see that it is also happening here.

Universities that once were citadels of truth and culture are being changed for the worse by irresponsible and radical students who are being used by Communist agitators.

Faculties that once taught Americanism and high standards of right and wrong have now become infiltrated by professors who teach Marxist ideologies and relativism.

Many Church bodies that once stood for sound doctrine and practice have now defected from the faith and are turning out ministers who question the authority of the Bible, the deity of Christ, and other fundamental doctrines of the Christian religion.

In many churches the social gospel has been substituted for the saving Gospel; secularized Sunday School literature has replaced Bible-centered literature; the desire for union of all denominations and bigness has crowded out all thoughts of doctrinal unity.

In ways too numerous to mention Satan and his followers are attacking the Word of God, trying to destroy the churches, and leading countless unindoctrinated and indifferent souls to hell.

O God, have mercy upon us! Forgive us our many sins as a nation and as individuals. Cast us not off in Thy holy righteousness. Spare us for the sake of the precious blood of Thy Son.

Fill all Christians with a renewed zeal to fight for Thy holy cause, to live the Christian life, to testify to others about their Savior, to win sinners for Thy kingdom of grace, to keep in constant communion with Thee through prayer.

Give us the victory over all the forces of Satan that are so desperately working to destroy us, so that Thy name may be glorified to the ends of the earth.

In Jesus' name we ask this. Amen.

BE STRONG

We are not here to play, to dream, to drift; We have hard work to do and loads to lift; Shun not the struggle—face it; 'Tis God's gift!

BE STRONG!

Say not, "The days are evil. Who's to blame?" And fold the hands and acquiesce—

Oh, shame! Stand up, speak out; and bravely, in God's name.

BE STRONG!

It matters not how deep entrenched the wrong, How hard the battle goes, the day how long Faint not — fight on! Tomorrow comes the song. (Babcock).

singer and the audience. Most of our young people who, sad to say, are shamefully ignorant about the tactics used by the Reds, will go away with the feeling that identified Communists aren't such bad guys after all. If Pete Seeger who has the ability to touch their heartstrings is an identified Red, then what's wrong with Communism? This is what the Red Fascists are after: To be accepted by our youth as talented and respectable Americans. In which way could we better help these criminal conspirators accomplish their purpose than by making our youth a captive audience of "folk singer" Seeger?

We'll Never Live it Down

As we see the grim pictures on television of American-flag-draped coffins containing the earthly remains of our brave servicemen from Vietnam, killed by the Reds in sneak attacks, it will be to the everlasting shame and disgrace of our Church and our Walther Leaguers in particular to be entertained by someone like Pete Seeger and to help pay for the "entertainment" at that.

What To Do

However, a flood of letters to Dr. Oliver R. Harms, the President of our Synod, with a carbon copy to Rev. Elmer N. Witt, Executive Director of the Walther League, demanding the removal of identified Communist Pete Seeger from the Convention Program should bring results in quick order. Also, please send a carbon of your letter to Through to Victory as we definitely are interested in the number of letters or petitions sent in. Their addresses: Dr. Oliver R. Harms, 210 N. Broadway, St. Louis, Missouri 63102; Rev. Elmer N. Witt, 875 North Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois 60610. Rev. Witt is also on the Editorial Staff and Board of Arena.

Act Now!

Action must be taken at once since the first deadline for applications to attend the Walther League Convention is April 1. A deposit of $40 or more must accompany the registration. Total cost is $70, which "includes housing, meals, insurance, program, and souvenir item" (emphasis ours). —P.C.N.

SEEGER AND THE COMMUNIST LINE

Under the dateline of October 30, 1963, the following appeared in The Freedom Press in an article entitled "Subversion By Hootenanny Is Revealed As No Myth," written by Lawrence Cott:

"Last month Hawaii was visited by an indefatigable propagandist, Pete Seeger, who stopped off on a world tour to plant a few seeds of strong, Communist-oriented propaganda."

After describing Seeger's trip, the article continues:

"Pete Seeger considers himself an active propagandist. In a sympathetic interview in the Communist youth magazine, New Horizons for Youth, April-May, 1962, Seeger said, 'So if any one wants to find out what my politics are it is easy for them to find out simply by attending one of my programs. I've never tried to pull punches, and if they listened to me one evening they will have a better definition of what I believe in.'"

Regarding some of the songs Seeger sang, the article goes on to say:

"An alert observer August 24th would have noticed that more than half the 'folk' songs were new or recent, that most were copyrighted (tarnishing the 'folk' image) and that most were of the 'protest' variety. (No happy folk songs?)"

"One might wonder how little historical fact and how much agitational propaganda was contained in his song on the plight of Negro mothers caring for white children in the mansion while their own children were untended in the cotton fields with 'the buzzards pecking out their eyes.'"

"Another popular 'folk' verse left one final thought: as the tornado bore down on the church the minister took up one final collection and ran."

Seeger's main propaganda vehicles are described in these words: "(1) The didactic little ditty from Japan about nuclear bombs, (2) A copyrighted attack, immersed in sarcasm, on American schools as institutions of indoctrination, ending with a student's complaint he might not get his chance to fight in a war, (3) A finale, his own copyrighted 'Where Have All the Flowers Gone,' inspired by a passage from Soviet writer Mikhail Sholokov's 'And Quiet Flows the Don.'" —P.C.N.

CLEVELAND RESOLUTION ON COMMUNISM

May we call attention to those responsible for placing Pete Seeger, identified Communist, on the program for the International Walther League Convention to be held at Squaw Valley, California, this summer, to Resolution 4-28, adopted at the Synodical Convention at Cleveland, Ohio, in 1962.

Found on page 120 of Proceedings, the pertinent paragraphs read as follows:

WHEREAS, Communism, secularism, and other insidious forces and ideologies that aim to identify Christianity with the American, or western, way of life are infiltrating our American society; and

WHEREAS, These forces, particularly Communism, have expressed religious philosophies which are, atheistic by intent and purpose — namely, substituting the creature for the Creator and renouncing the need of a Savior from sin; and

WHEREAS, Many members of our church desire some guidance, as they study these forces and ideologies, so dangerous and possibly damaging to their Christian faith, specifically also a study of the religious aspects of atheistic and materialistic Communism; therefore be it (emphasis ours)

RESOLVED, That the Synod's congregations and their societies continue to be sensitive to such forces and ideologies and inform themselves regarding the nature and menace of such soul-destroying, enslaving ideologies. (Emphasis ours).

It is obvious that the program committee for the Walther Convention is violating the clear intent of this resolution. —P.C.N.

Guess Again

"What a damned rotten shame."
 "Damn it, I mean the exact, actual, physical cause of his death."
 "Damn it, that's what I want!"
 "Damn it, John, why don't you answer it?"
 "What the hell are you talking about?"
 "Damn it, that's all they're supposed to preach anyway."
 "God, you're a fool, John."
 "God, how can you stand religion?"

Guess where the above expressions are found? Very likely your guess would be in some cheap, vulgar magazine found on the newsstand — the kind of a rag you wouldn't want your children to read.

If so, you're dead wrong!

These sentences, with their cursing and using God's holy name in vain, are found in the play "The Community," by Malcolm Boyd, on pages 29-36 of the January-February issue of Arena, our official youth publication.

Is this the kind of reading material that you want your son or daughter to read? Does this kind of a "play" belong in a church publication? Does it edify? Must we put up with this corruption of the minds of our youth in our own church's youth magazine?

We see only one solution — demand the removal of Rev. Klausner as editor of Arena and have him replaced by a man who is "of a contrite spirit, and trembleth at God's Word." (Isaiah 66:2).

Not only does Arena not edify the faith of our young people, it helps tear it down. —P.C.N.

REGARDING FALSE DOCTRINE AND PERSECUTION IN ARENA

One of the most shocking statements ever made in any of our Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod's official publications is that found in the January-February 1965 issue of Arena by the Rev. Wayne Saffen, Campus Pastor at the University of Chicago. On Page 14, in his article, "A Lutheran Looks at the Jews," he states:

"This latter implies a theological viewpoint with which many Christians would disagree, but which is emerging out of biblical studies. It is that it may be God's purpose to deal with the Jews as His chosen people in His own merciful way without requiring their conversion to Christianity while dealing with Gentiles in the Church. There is an unbiblical presumption in believing that Jews are 'lost' because they are not Christian. Rather than Jews joining the church it seems more biblical to say that Christians are incorporated in Israel, becoming the children of promise by grace and not by birthright."

The Bible Calls This "Damnable Heresy"

Pastor Saffen states "that it may be God's purpose to deal with the Jews . . . without requiring conversion to Christianity." However, our Lord Jesus tells the unbelieving Jews in His day: "I said therefore unto you, ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am He, ye shall die in your sins" (John 8:24). Again the Scriptures declare: "He that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God . . . He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him" (John 3:18,36). Jesus further declares: "I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father but by Me" (John 14:6). "If a man abide not in Me, he is cast forth as a branch and is withered; and men gather them and cast them into the fire, and they are burned" (John 15:6). "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but He that believeth not shall be damned" (Mark 16:16). And the prince of the Apostles, addressing the rulers and elders of Israel, categorically states: "Neither is there salvation in any other (than Jesus Christ, i.e.): for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved" (Acts 4:12). And John the Beloved adds: "Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son. Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father" (1 John 2:22-23). And finally Peter comes right out and calls the denial of our Lord "damnable heresy." "There shall also be false teachers among you, who shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction" (2 Pet. 2:1).

These are crystal clear passages from the Bible showing that there are not two ways of salvation — one for the Jews and one for the Gentiles. With the kind of Bible interpretation now current among so-called modern "theologians," we can expect anything to "emerge out of biblical studies" with the exception of the truth.

Pastor Saffen further makes the unwarranted assumption that the present day apostate Jews represent the true Israel. St. Paul reminds us, "For he is not a Jew who is one outwardly . . . but he is a Jew which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God" (Rom. 2:28-29). "For we are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus . . . and if ye be Christ's then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise" (Gal. 3:26-29). What could be clearer than these passages of Holy Writ?

"Our Damned Piety of Quietism"

Pastor Saffen also states on page 13: "Did it ever occur to Christians to ask forgiveness from those whom they have persecuted? — in the Name of Jesus Christ of all people! The whole blessed mess cannot all be laid on the shoulders of Hitler and so absolve the rest of us from our damned piety of quietism." When a person's arguments are miserably weak and helplessly anemic he sometimes resorts to cursing. We fear this is the case with "theologian" Saffen when he blames us Christians for what (Continued on Page 4)

Letters Protest Seeger Appearance

We understand (from Dr. McBirmie's radio program) that the Missouri Synod Walther Leaguers are featuring Pete Seeger on their entertainment list at the Squaw Valley retreat this summer. How about that? Would like it confirmed and printed in the TTV if so.

Missouri Synod is right in their "punching"!!
 Please renew our TTV.
 Oceanside, Calif.

People from our congregation are very much stirred up about the whole proposed program of the International Walther League.

If there is anything we can do to help Through to Victory on this we are ready to do what we can.

In our local church we plan to get out the facts on Pete Seeger to our people, and, after they have digested that, we hope to call a Through to Victory meeting.

South San Gabriel, California

Just heard Dr. Stewart McBirmie on his "Voice of Americanism" — he read from the young people's magazine of Lutheran Church — Missouri Synod, that the young people, when they meet in Squaw Valley in July, will have a known Communist — Pete Seeger — with his folk songs.

He offered radio time to an official of the Missouri Synod to deny his charges. He said he wept tears for he said there was no preacher like the late Dr. Walter Maier (he has such respect for the Missouri Synod).

Also Martin Luther would turn over in his grave, if he knew this was going on.

Pastor, I'm so concerned for our dear Missouri Synod. I hope much of this can be taken care of at the June convention, but we have to expose this Seeger deal soon! And so much else going on under cover.

I pray daily, and pray fervently that the Lord will take a hand. Our people are so lax, so apathetic, God forgive us and alert us for Christ's sake.

What can I or others of our church do to alert other ministers? So many say "It can't happen here." Our money is being used to support the ones who are going to murder us. Can you front page this in TTV in the March issue? We're truly in the last, last days.
 Los Angeles, California

Editor's Note: Dr. W. S. McBirmie's program, "The Voice of Americanism," is heard Monday through Saturday over eight powerful radio stations covering large areas of California, Oregon, and Washington.

If this minister of the United Community Church of Glendale, California, should weep over this, how great should our sorrow be?

American Principles

Hon. E. T. Benson

What are the fundamental principles which have allowed the United States to progress so rapidly and yet remain free?

First, a written Constitution clearly defining the limits of government so that government will not become more powerful than the people.

Second, an economic system characterized by:

Free enterprise — the right to venture, the right to choose.
 Private property — the right to own, develop and enjoy.

A market economy—the right to exchange and to profit.

Third, building an open society where each individual enjoys the greatest opportunity to improve himself, to travel, to become educated, to invent, to compete, to build, to speak, to worship, and to pursue happiness in whatever way the individual finds most satisfying and worthwhile.

Fourth, assigning government the role of referee rather than competitor — giving it enough power to provide peace, order and security but not enough power to rob the people of their liberty or take their property "without due process of law."

he calls "our damned piety of quietism."

I ask you, are we Christians to be blamed for the sins of godless men like Hitler? What Christian ever persecuted the Jews? Now, of course, if denouncing Jewish sins is "persecution" and "hatred," then, no doubt, all Christians are "guilty." Then Jesus Christ is most guilty. (Cf. Matt. 23: 13-39; Luke 11: 39-54).

The historical fact is that the Jews, especially the religious leaders, who would not accept Jesus Christ as their Messiah, are the ones who first persecuted the Christians. They instigated the crucifixion of Jesus Christ. The Jewish leaders stoned Stephen, the first Christian martyr (Acts 7). They instigated the persecution and stoning of St. Paul. (Cf. Acts 9:23-25; 14:1,2,19 etc.) However, no reference to this is made in Arena in any of the statements on persecution.

Besides, Hitler has been dead for some twenty years, and they are blaming Christians who were not even born at that time for what Hitler did. Jews today are not only the wealthiest people on earth, they have many top positions in governments all over the world. Their power, wealth and prestige is proportionately greater than that of any other people in the world. How could these people prosper if they are so persecuted?

Would it not be more appropriate and honest to talk about the quietism of Christians concerning the persecution of fellow Christians in Communist lands? It is estimated that one hundred million people are in slave labor camps in Communist lands today. It is further estimated that well over a hundred million have already been put to death by the Communists throughout the world since 1917. Isn't this something, rather, that should bestir a Christian before this holocaust also engulfs us? Our danger is not from Nazism. Nazism is a dead horse. Why continue to kick a dead horse? Our danger is from Communism—both internal and external. This is something the Reds know. Therefore, to divert our attention from the persecutions of Christians and non-Christians alike that are going on today, the Communists are forever playing up the persecutions under Hitler and playing down the greatest mass murders the world has ever witnessed under atheistic Communism. It would be just as idiotic to hold us Christians responsible for the slaughter of millions by the godless Reds today as it is to hold us Christians responsible for the persecution of the Jews by the godless Nazis two decades ago. —P.C.N.

WHAT CAN YOU DO ABOUT ARENA?

All that is necessary for the triumph of evil is for good men to do nothing. If we sit on our hands and allow our youth to be contaminated by some of the material that appears in Arena, then we have no one to blame but ourselves. If we are so unconcerned about what is being fed to our youth through our publications, then we deserve to have them grow up so broad-minded that they become shallow, so doctrinally indifferent that they become easy prey to any false doctrine, so indifferent to the truth that they embrace error.

If you are really concerned but fail to pray and to act and to work for what is right, then are you not shirking your duty as a disciple of Christ? This writer is of the opinion that our clergy and our teachers and our laity in general are devout, conservative Christians. He is also of the opinion that those who present views similar to the ones expressed by the Rev. Wayne Saffen in Arena are in the minority. But such theologically false views will continue to be expressed in Arena unless those who stand for sound doctrine will rise up as an army and protest in no uncertain terms.

Let us bear in mind that Arena is the official organ of our Walther League and should have as its purpose the development of Christian manhood and womanhood. How important this is since the youth of our Church today will be the leaders of our Church tomorrow.

Not a Pretty Picture

But Arena, under the editorship of the Rev. Alfred P. Klauser, has radically departed from the high principles and sound doctrine established by the founders of the Walther League Messenger (now Arena). No wonder that subscriptions to Arena have plummeted from 70,000 under Dr. Walter A. Maier to less than 6,000 as of December 1964. This indicates the dissatisfaction of many of our clergy, youth counselors, parents, and young people with the present editorial policy.

The Synodical Convention will be held June 16-25 at Detroit, Michigan. There still is time to draw up a memorial or a petition to the Convention demanding that Alfred P. Klauser be removed as Editor of Arena. Such memorials may be drawn up by districts, circuit conferences, congregations, or individuals. They must be duly signed by communicant members or designated officers and sent to the President of our Synod, Dr. Oliver R. Harms, 210 N. Broadway, St. Louis, Missouri 63102. You may solicit signatures from any communicant member of the Missouri Synod if you wish. The memorial or petition must be in the hands of the President by March 10 in order to be printed in the Book of Memorials. However, any memorial sent in up to 10 days before the Convention must be considered. If you wish, you may also send a copy or a notice of your memorial to Through to Victory. —P.C.N.

'Lines' Thrown to Christians in Arena

ARENA, the youth magazine of the Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod, in the issue of Jan-Feb 1965, contains an integration article by Federal Judge James B. Parsons.

Because ARENA has chosen to set Judge Parsons up as an authority on Christian attitudes and action in regard to racial problems we shall examine his pronouncements. In short, we shall treat him as an equal — as a fallible man rather than as a sacrosanct prophet of an oppressed race — keeping in mind that his pronouncements are no more political than theological. We shall judge Judge Parsons' article "Moral Leadership in Christian Brotherhood" on its own merit — or lack thereof.

According to Judge Parsons the Negro's "great obligation" is not to save his soul and the souls of others but to achieve

"full equality" and bring about with our help (not God's) "a nation and community of many peoples united in their common greatness." That could be straight from Marx.

THOUGHT CONTROL

Judge Parsons hurriedly goes through the motions of establishing the "God-given principle" of his thesis on social and economic equality and then relentlessly repeats the fallacy. Our zealous but confused youth are offered an opportunity to identify with a seemingly noble cause, and he is confident that their contagious Christian enthusiasm will induce the clergy to take up the chant. Once the clergy has been hoodwinked Judge Parsons' goal is in sight.

The prospects for Pavlovian thought control over churchgoers elate Judge Parsons. The method is childishly simple. Hitler reduced it to this formula: "Repeat it often enough and most people will believe it." Judge Parsons repeatedly states his central theme that racial bias is "the worst of the great sins" and "equality is the first fundamental in Christianity." He could be correct if he were referring to spiritual equality (Christian individualism) rather than to the Marxist concept of social and economic "equality."

Judge Parsons spells out the final steps to be taken in bringing about the layman's inability to think for himself: "... (the clergy must) mutually pledge to strike hard against this, the worst of the great sins. ... There must be ... by some technique of leadership a convincing conversion, a controlled conquering of the consciences. ... (ministers must) add condemnation to their definition of the worst of the sins ... to the end that their laities join them unanimously. ... (this can be achieved) with endless words of wisdom and guidance and authority and integrity." But no facts!

OPEN DISCUSSION OF FACTS

He wants the clergy to organize to suppress any dissenting voices: "They must solidify their professional unity so securely that reactionaries can no longer divide and conquer or threaten their professional security, as a result of their ability always to find another minister who will not embarrass them in their bigotries." Any minister who refuses to accept the revelations of Judge Parsons would apparently be defrocked as a heretic.

We don't mean to sound sarcastic, but it strikes us that Judge Parsons is somewhat bigoted. He could possibly learn something through an open discussion of his problem, and we're certain there are things we could learn from him if he will condescend to discuss facts with us. Our church organization has a doctrinal basis and doctrinal heretics should certainly be expelled, but we can tolerate a number of viewpoints regarding solutions to complex social problems — assuming that none of the viewpoints are unchristian.

PRUDENCE

Christian doctrine neither commands nor forbids either integration or segregation. It calls for love. It could be proper under peculiar local circumstances, primarily in the Deep South for a congregation of segregationists to direct a prospective church member of another race to a church which the segregationists, but of Christian Love and a respect for their own culture, have built specifically for the other race.

There are of course some obvious adverse effects. Although the members of the congregation might have clear consciences in exercising their Christian liberty this act of discrimination would drive away from churches in general those nominal Christians who are zealous integrationists. On the other hand it would keep together a congregation of segregationists and keep the door open for the segregationist who is a luke-warm Christian looking for a church in which to become active.

Each congregation must carefully and prayerfully consider the probable long-range effect of such decisions. The question that should be asked: "Will integration (or segregation) of our church win more souls than it will lose?" It is a matter of prudence, not doctrine.

It is our opinion that the vast majority of Lutherans have no strong feelings on the subject of integration. They intuitively know the theological unsoundness of the "doctrine of integration" and deplore the extremist tactics of the opinion-molders who in the name of Christianity have unwittingly waged what is in effect a hate campaign against segregationists. Christian segregationists have in this respect been more tolerant. They do not teach that integrationists should be condemned for committing "the worst of the great sins." They merely point out that Christian integrationists should pause to reflect on the probable consequences of their impetuous statements and actions.

PARADOX

Judge Parsons dazzles us with figures and feigns naive shock over the paradox that "86 per cent of our religion-professing people possess some degree of racial or color bias." This makes him sound very scientific. But doesn't tell us who pulled this number out of whose hat.

Here is a real paradox: so-called responsible Negro integration leaders are vociferous supporters of socialistic measures which obviously tend to make the Negroes more irresponsible and thus more unacceptable. Unemployed Negroes (and non-Negroes) who have been encouraged to "stand up for their rights" refuse employment because the work is "beneath their dignity" and the pay is little more than their welfare dole. Do integration leaders seize this opportunity to improve the image of the Negro by exhorting him to earn his daily bread? Do they advocate stricter administration and less generous doles in an effort to make loafing less attractive? No, they clamor for new and bigger government programs, forgetting the wisdom of Abraham Lincoln who observed that tearing down the rich does not build up the poor.

It certainly looks from here as though the leading integrationists are in fact the leading socialists who deliberately agitate against our free enterprise system which is based on the right to own and control private property. Every socialistic program requires a bigger tax bite which makes the ownership of private property less attractive and the fruits of hard work less tangible.

DEMOCRATIC CONCEPT

When confronted with these facts the socialist goes into a

Prayers For Our Critical Times

All Christians should pray daily for their enslaved brethren behind the Iron Curtain.

This is the least we can do: this is the most we can do.

In order to help you pray for your fellow Christians in need, we have prepared an attractive prayer book entitled "In God Is Our Help." Written by Rev. Paul C. Neipp, this 50-page book is, to our knowledge, the only prayer book that contains a variety of pertinent prayers for our nation and the world situation in these critical times.

In addition to the 32 prayers contained in this little volume, there are seven meditations on the power, the promises, and the art of prayer itself.

Our first printing of 20,000 copies will be off the press on March 10. This most helpful prayer book will make an excellent gift for the Easter season. Single copy 35c; 3 copies $1.00; 10 copies $3.00; 100 copies $25.00.

 eran committee staff investigators Louis J. Russell and Phillip R. Manuel.

The Courageous Counterspy
 The story of the Government's star witness, Mr. Andrew J. Berez, is in itself a sensational disclosure. For the record-breaking period of 20 years — from 1942 to 1962 — Mr. Berez has successfully served as a counterspy for the FBI. How he managed to do it is a matter to which I would hope he someday devotes a book. I am sure it would constitute an important addition to the fund of knowledge we already have of the communist conspiracy in this country.

His entrance into the cloak and dagger life began, as many of the stories do, quite by accident. Andrew J. Berez was born in Hungary in 1914. He emigrated to the United States at the age of 15. Four years later he went to work with the American Radiator Company, where he has now been continuously employed for 31 years. He is proudly a member of the United Steelworkers of America, AFL-CIO, Local 1199.

In 1936 Mr. Berez became a naturalized citizen of the United States. Shortly thereafter, because of the insurance benefits offered by it, Mr. Berez joined the International Workers Order, more commonly known as the IWO. He was elected financial secretary of the Hungarian section, and held that position until the IWO was dissolved by the State of New York in 1953.

Mr. Berez testified that in 1942, his IWO Club contributed $300.00 to each of several nationality papers, plus one $300.00 contribution to the Daily Worker. Mr. Berez participated in the authorization of the contribution, not aware at the time that the Worker was the official propaganda mouthpiece for the communist movement.

Within a month after the IWO donation to the communist newspaper, two of the comrades showed up again, and this time they did not ask, but demanded, $600.00 more for the Communist Party.

Mr. Berez, as Chairman of the IWO Club, indignantly refused to sign the check. He announced that he was not a communist and had no intentions of becoming one. In the rhubarb which followed, Mr. Berez was ejected from his office as Chairman of the Club, but was permitted to retain his position as financial secretary of the Hungarian Section. It is not recorded who was the most astonished; Mr. Berez, with his abrupt discovery of communist domination of the IWO; or the comrades, who apparently, and mistakingly, assumed that Mr. Berez had been pro-communist if not communist, all the time.

In any event, on the following day Mr. Berez was visited by three agents of the FBI. He agreed to report to them on communist activities within the IWO; and later he further agreed to join the Communist Party itself as a counterspy for the FBI. And thus began his assignment in the service of our nation which was to last for 20 years.

THE COMMUNISTS HAVE CHANGED?
 "The record of this hearing speaks for itself. There are those who say that communism presents no problem — and no danger — to the United States. I believe that the facts developed in this hearing and the conduct of the witnesses (all of them who were identified as members of the Communist Party) are sufficient to refute this claim. "Basically, there are only two ways of life in governmental or political sphere — the way of law and the way of the jungle. "Communism, through the conduct of its adherents in these hearings, has been shown to be a throwback, a back-to-the-jungle movement; in other words, the blackest form of reaction. "I make this point because there are some who still entertain the illusion that communism is somehow 'progressive' or 'liberal'." Congressman Joe R. Pool, Texas, in his summation at the conclusion of the Buffalo hearings.

A Story of Treachery
 During this time Mr. Berez observed, and reported to the FBI, communist efforts toward manipulation and control of youth; the infiltration of communists into the Women's Strike For Peace and The Women's International League for Peace and Freedom; communist participation in the "Ban The Bomb" demonstrations; and finally, toward the end, the appearance of fractionalism in communist ranks; and the division of party members into those who continue to follow the Moscow party line and the communists who follow the more militant and aggressive Chinese Communist line, represented by the Workers World Party, the Progressive Labor Movement, Hammer and Steel, and other such splinter groups.

But, the most important phase of the hearings, insofar as the lives and safety of the American people are concerned, with that part of the testimony which made it plain that the subversive and treasonable activities of the communist conspiracy are such which places it far outside the bounds of any legitimate political movement.

Committee Counsel William Hitz asked:
 "During your membership in the Communist Party, were you

A COUNTERSPY'S DISCOVERY
 "Otis Hood, District Chairman of the Communist Party, USA, took the platform next. He used a new term, one I had never before heard in all of my party activities, "colonizers." A party colonizer, he declared, was a devoted member who could be assigned party tasks in an important plant; or, if not already strategically placed, he would willingly give up his job in a nonessential industry or profession and move into one of the decisive industries. "The colonizer", I recall Hood saying, "will be elevated to a position of highest honor in the ranks of the Communist Party." From "I Led 3 Lives"; a report of a secret communist meeting held on February 2, 1947 in Boston, Massachusetts.

aware of the movements of people from New York City and thereabouts, into the Buffalo area, who were members of the Communist Party?"

Mr. Berez replied, "Yes, sir."

Mr. Hitz: Did you have any name or expression for them who did that?

Mr. Berez: Well, they were called the colonizers.

Mr. Hitz: Colonizers?

Mr. Berez: Yes, sir.

Mr. Hitz: What is a colonizer?

Mr. Berez: Well . . . they are well-educated people and they went into different industries to work and they wouldn't reveal their identity (as communists). They would go in steel mills and every kind of a shop to work, instead of going to the profession that they actually belong to.

Mr. Hitz: They were suited for better jobs than they took?

Mr. Berez: That is right . . . they were trained for better jobs, and they took jobs that did not belong to them. They took hard labor jobs instead of taking the jobs that they were actually trained for.

The Unfriendly Witnesses

Following the testimony of Mr. Berez, the House Committee subpoenaed and questioned 14 unfriendly witnesses, who had been identified as communists. Even though they employed the privilege of the Fifth Amendment in refusing to answer almost every question, directly or indirectly each and every one confirmed the previous testimony by Mr. Berez.

His testimony was further confirmed by information previously provided to the House Committee by another former counterspy for the FBI, Mr. Charles Regan, who had also personally witnessed — and reported — the infiltration of communist colonizers in Buffalo industries.

The pattern in each case was the same; a secret, underground member of the Communist apparatus, who, by training, education and experience would be qualified to apply for a "white collar" job, would move into the Buffalo area from some other city; most of them from New York. However, as pointed out by Mr. Berez, rather than apply for a job for which they had been educated in college, they would apply for a position far below their capabilities. In so doing, they would also conceal from their employers not only their membership in the Communist Party — even when such information was specifically solicited in the application forms; they would also conceal the full extent of educational training.

For example, one of the communists identified by Mr. Berez was a Paul Sporn. He was named as having been a communist party colonizer and, more recently, the education and literature director of the Erie County branch of the party — which meant that he was part of the highly important "Agit-Prop" section of the Communist Party.

When called and questioned by the House Committee, Mr. Sporn very reluctantly admitted that he had graduated cum laude from New York University with a Bachelor of Arts degree.

The witness was confronted with copies of applications for employment submitted by him to four Buffalo industries, dating from 1953 through 1955. In each instance, Mr. Sporn had sought positions in a laboring capacity. And in each instance, in the job application forms, Mr. Sporn had admitted to only a high school education, concealing the fact that he was a college graduate, or that he held a college degree. When questioned about these matters by the House Committee, Mr. Sporn, over and over again, pleaded the Fifth Amendment.

In addition to Mr. Sporn, the government witness Berez identified eight other communist colonizers in the highly important industrial area of Buffalo: Sy Rudner, Alexander Salmin, Sid Ingerman, Edward Wolkenstein, Marty Zelman, Milton Rosen, Walter Zvalenko and Mortimer Scheer.

And the Taxpayer Pays

To top it off, one of the red colonizers, Sy Rudner, together with another of the unfriendly witnesses, Tobias Schwartz, were found by the Congressional Committee to be both employed by the Roswell Park Memorial Institute in Buffalo, which is engaged in research under contract with the National Institutes of Health of the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare. In short, the U.S. taxpayer is supporting identified communists, Sy Rudner and Tobias Schwartz, in Buffalo, New York. One can but wonder how many other enemies of the United States are similarly directly or indirectly on the government payrolls today.

The House Committee on Un-American Activities transcript of the Buffalo hearings was particularly interesting to me, not only because I served in a similar capacity as an undercover informant for the FBI (but not nearly as long!) as did Mr. Berez; but also because as far back as 1947 I attended a top priority communist meeting in Boston, Massachusetts, where the communist bosses spelled out the importance of "colonization" of "key" industries as a vital part of the communist attack against the United States.

Then, in 1957, another FBI undercover informant, Charles Regan, also produced information about the communist colonization of basic industry.

Now, last month, still more evidence of the serious and methodical Soviet plans to subvert and destroy the American economic and defense system through "colonization" was exposed to public view.

well-rehearsed double-talk routine which winds up something like this, to quote Judge Parsons: ". . . Americans have not kept pace with the development of the democratic concept."

It is occasionally possible to pin these fast-talkers down and extract an admission that in their opinion the Communists have been setting the pace in the "development of the democratic concept." This gives us some insight into the socialist's obsession with the word "democracy." He is not referring to our form of government which is a constitutional republic under God, based on checks and balances, but is thinking of a "Peoples' Democracy," which is a euphemism for the totalitarianism behind the Iron Curtain.

Were he striving for a pure theoretical democracy he would be just as dangerous. The changing whims of a gullible and emotional majority become the supreme law of the land. There is no stability such as can be enjoyed when the executive, legislative, and judicial branches of a government each properly performs its own, and only its own, function. The utter chaos of a pure democracy renders it helpless against its organized enemy who has vowed to conquer it and institute "social order."

SENSE OF PROPORTION

The lot of the American Negro is an unenviable one, but the frustration, bitterness, and privations endured as the result of either blind hate or "ethnic idiosyncracies" are insignificant in comparison with the actual slavery and perpetual tyranny in a "Peoples' Democracy." Even the senseless murder of civil rights agitators in Mississippi pales in comparison with the martyrdom of the millions of Christians who have so far been liquidated in the "peaceful democratic liberations" of Red Fascism.

Those who knowingly work to bring about this enslavement have sold their souls to the Devil for a promise of full acceptance into the elite society of slave-masters. They will be the state; the state will be god; hence they will be god. Notice how closely this parallels the line handed Eve by the Tempter. RECKLESSNESS

We pray that our Christian leaders in their zeal to rectify the shortcomings of our society will proceed cautiously with eyes wide open. Only an extreme masochistic sense of justice could motivate them to deliberately destroy the nation which has been history's outstanding dispenser of justice.

Sincere Christians who see only local problems should of course devote their efforts to the solution of those problems. In helping the Negro to overcome his shortcomings they should first familiarize themselves with the facts. Observation of a few Negro students on their best behavior is not in itself an adequate study of Negroes in general — nor is the reading of Communist-authored books or exposure to Communist propaganda by identified Communist folk-singers. After learning the facts of the problem the logical steps by which the deficiencies can be overcome will be self-evident to thinking Christians.

Care must be exercised to avoid creating hysteria through factual statements and emotional outbursts to the effect that "We must not integrate with the ungodly Communists who exploit our racial problems to create disorders which are used as justification for the introduction of radical socialistic measures." Above all they must not integrate with the ungodly Communists who exploit our racial problems to create disorders which are used as justification for the introduction of radical socialistic measures. —P.C.N.

OUR READERS SAY

I thank God that we still have Lutheran ministers such as you, who have the courage to speak out against the diabolical Communist conspiracy which is closing in on our lives more and more day by day.

It appears that many Christians — and this includes many Lutherans — who should be supporting your great work are satisfied to sit on their hands and do nothing or are belittling and criticizing the people who are attempting to alert our people and show up this danger.

I pray God that our ministers will "stand up straight" in their pulpits and in a loud, clear voice cry out against this godless Communist conspiracy and its many manifestations appearing in our daily national lives; such as the "watering down" and distortion of God's word, denial of our God-given religious heritage, elimination of prayers in school, moral decadence in business and government, the give-away of our wealth to enhance the world-wide Communist conspiracy, the curtailment and gradual elimination of our God-given freedoms, disarmament and worthless test-ban treaties, curtailment of our military force, etc., all in order to peacefully co-exist in "harmony and understanding" with the Devil and his bloody-handed henchmen and cohorts.

How long, Oh Lord, how long, will it be before our people awakened from this stupid slumber. Must we, too, be "sold" into Socialistic - Communist slavery, as has half the world, before we really get down fervently praying to God, for forgiveness, humility, and guidance (II Chron. 7:14) and stir ourselves and take militant Christian action against this awful danger.

Please accept the enclosed modest contribution for your very worthy "Win Now Project." May God continue to bless you in this great work; this, in Jesus' name I ask.

Let me thank you for the fine coverage in your February edition. Your paper is such a joy and I always look forward to receiving it.

Keep up the good work and may God bless you.

Hurst B. Amyx

I have been reading TTV off and on for sometime. It is a wonderful paper. I admire your conviction and courage. May the Lord bless your endeavors.

All we can do is hope and pray and work that the Lord will perform a miracle in Detroit and reverse the trend in our Synod. I might possibly go there as a visitor.

I ask you to renew my subscription to "Through to Victory." I have a new address; please change it.

It makes me deeply grateful to know that there are Christian leaders who have not lost their conscience and courage. I have a deep admiration for your work and courage.

May God bless you in your work.

Our daughter sent us some samples of your paper. It is a splendid paper, so fitting for these times.

I will do the best I can working against Communism but I am 82 years old and cannot do what I would like to do. My husband Rev. Walter Cook is retired and 92 and sick and blind and is not able to do any more work. He sure would if he were able to work.

I sure can see that we are living in the end time. Hope the Good Lord will come before it gets too awful bad.

Mrs. Walter Cook

We would like again to tell you how happy we are to know about your paper. We appreciate having it to read, refer to, and learn about new things.

We like it so much we would like to have some more of our friends introduced to it. The names and addresses are on the attached paper.

May God bless you; protect you, and increase your wisdom and faith. We pray constantly for the Lord's guidance and protection.

Please renew my subscription to "Through To Victory." It's a wonderful little paper full of the truths we need to know. Also send me 4 copies of your book Win Now or Lose All.

Mrs. J. Reeves
Sacramento, California

Thanks to the generosity of a good friend in San Antonio, Texas, I have received a gift subscription to your fine publication. I have with great interest just finished reading through the December and January issues. I am more than proud to have this publication come into my home. I feel that it belongs in every home in the nation.

I am an old-fashioned Christian, and a so-called "hill-billy" Baptist preacher who loves the Lord Jesus Christ. I am a disabled World War 2 veteran who has had many sore trials and troubles and much sickness in this present life. But I go on from day to day by the wonderful grace of God. My simple faith in the Christ of God and of Calvary is my assurance of a glorious victory. Romans 8:28-39, I Corinthians 15:57-58.

I have been in the battle for God and the Republic since the late 50's against Atheism, Modernism, Communism, and the other enemies of the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ. I would to God that the American public would wake up to what's going on on the national and international scenes. We have become the laughing stock of the whole world. Through our foreign aid program we actually subsidize the Communist conspiracy against us. American fighting men from the Korean War and Vietnam are in Communist concentration camps. Our government and the UN organization of aggression, hypocrisy and confusion does nothing about their sad and shameful plight. Is the good old USA on the verge of becoming a USSA within the framework of a One World Government.

Evangelist Fred Peters
Kingsport, Tennessee

I am enclosing a check for $5.00 and would like to order your materials.

I am hopeful that these materials will help friends and me get started with a study group in our congregation of Loving Shepherd Lutheran Church in Gardena, California. We are now discussing the use of films, tapes, etc. of Dr. Schwarz's Christian Anti-Communism Crusade and from Coast Federal Savings.

God bless you in all your wonderful work. Rev. Neipp, which both alerts and informs people and draws people to our Lord and Savior through His Holy Word. Please pray for us that God will direct us in this study and open ears and hearts and that much good fruit will come from it.

Mrs. James Duffy
Gardena, California

I wish to express my sincere thanks for your dedicated efforts in informing and inspiring us with "Through To Victory."

As I stated in a letter to you, I was introduced to your fine publication by a brother, who lives in Columbus, Ohio, and which you made mention of in the October issue. It was most gratifying.

There's so much to do, against seemingly great odds, that at times it seems most difficult to continue. And I hasten to add that I am most fortunate in being ever aware that God is on our side. This fact keeps bouncing up, and gives me the inspiration and motivation needed to continue informing myself, so that I may in turn inform and alert my fellow Americans, who have been lulled to sleep by the clever tunes of the Communist symphony. Rest assured, however, that no matter how beautiful the tune, how strong the harmonic structure, how fitting the time signature may be, it shall fill me with more intense determination to do my part to defeat Communism, and its more "polite" forerunner erroneously and cleverly referred to as Socialism. It shall not lull me or my family to sleep! That is, with God's help.

Michael F. Sherman
Park Ridge, Illinois

I receive Through to Victory, and I use your tracts in the unending war against Communism and spiritual warfare.

However, I had not seen "Pacifism or Preparedness?" and "Why Ministers Should Fight Communism." As a starter, please send me a small quantity of both of these for the money enclosed.

Perhaps I can work out a program to send these to pastors in a certain area.

I want to make a renewed effort to enlist more subscribers to Through to Victory. I have been giving sample copies and recommending it.

Oscar T. Gillan

I have been receiving about 30-40 copies of TTV each month for free distribution to college students here at E. Texas Baptist College. These have been very favorably received; many have expressed their appreciation of receiving a copy each month. Many value the articles very highly, and, like myself, find TTV a valuable source of information. So, speaking for each one who receives a copy of TTV, let me say a sincere "thank you" for making this possible.

James B. DeYoung
West Covina, Calif.

I received the box of TTV's today and, thanks so very much. I was so happy to get them. I gave out 15 to-day; one lady asked me for an extra to give to her Pastor as he has not taken a stand against Communism. I have been asked to see some of the Ministers that have not made a stand against Communism, and their members want their Minister to make himself clear on this subject. So I will give them one of your papers as well as one of Dr. McBirnie's radio schedules and literature and discuss the menace of Communism, for this is the great battle we free people must win or fall into the dark ages.

God bless you, Rev. Neipp, for your wonderful work. I will certainly do all in my power to help preserve our Freedom, not for myself alone but for my grandchildren as well as the grandchildren of other people. I hope and pray all the people of my age with no young children to care for and have free time will get into this fight against Communism.

God bless you.

YOUR OPPORTUNITY TO VISIT THE HOLY LAND

Presumably you have joined millions of Christians in their dream of one day visiting the Holy Land. To walk in the steps of the Master is indeed a thrilling experience. To see the sites sanctified and immortalized by the Saviour's presence and activity is never-to-be-forgotten.

That opportunity of a lifetime is now offered to you at a very reasonable, all-expense-tour rate.

An archaeological scholar of note, Dr. August W. Brustat of Scarsdale, New York, who made such an extended tour of Bible Lands in 1963, has been asked to conduct such a Tour, leaving from Kennedy Airport, New York, on September 30, 1965.

The 15-day Tour includes: Cairo, Luxor-Karnak, and the Valley of the Kings and Queens in EGYPT; Beirut, Byblos, Baalbek in LEBANON; Damascus in SYRIA; Jerusalem, Jericho, Bethlehem, Bethany, the Jordan River, the Dead Sea, Gethsemane, etc., in JORDAN; David's Tomb, the Dead Sea Scrolls (Qumran), Nazareth, Tiberias, Capernaum, and the Sea of Galilee in ISRAEL.

For an additional seven days, and very little additional cost, an optional trip may be made to TURKEY, GREECE, and Rome.

Vacation plans are made early, and the Tour plans must also be made early, hence this vacation-suggestion for 1965 at this time. Reservations should be made just as soon as possible. For a descriptive brochure and further information write today directly to: Dr. August W. Brustat, Box 446, Scarsdale, New York, 10583.

FLEAS IN KRUSHCHEV'S SHIRT

For fighting Communism, you need ammunition! The following tracts by Paul C. Neipp are short, clear, to the point and very attractive.

Why Christians Must Fight

TRACTS

We are sending a check for $5.00 for a one-year subscription to "Through to Victory," 40 tracts "Communism is Total Tyranny," copy of the book None Dare Call It Treason, and "Anatomy of a Smear." Keep what balance there is.

Thank Pastor Neipp for his letters in the Lutheran Witness.

E. J. Brandt
Littlefield, Texas

I suppose it is only natural for us to grow tired of the never-ending task of paying bills.

However, I have found that by including one of your fine tracts with each check I mail out, the pain is eased greatly.

As a matter of fact, one of your tracts goes into each and every envelope which I send out regardless of its nature. Consequently, I almost — through force of habit — included one in a recent letter to Senator Goldwater.

I am a proud supporter of "Through to Victory," and it is a great help in my efforts to awaken my "snoozing" friends, who have been lulled to sleep by the "Communist Symphony."

My prayers are with you constantly.

Michael F. Sherman,
Park Ridge, Illinois

For enclosed funds, please send 100 "While Men Slept" and a quantity of "For Women Only."

Keep up the good work. May the Lord's blessings abide with you.

R. W. Robinson,
Sequim, Washington

Please send me 100 for $1.00 the tract "While Men Slept" by Rev. Paul Neipp. This should make a splendid "waker-upper" tucked into letters and passed on to friends. Would appreciate samples of your other materials.

tract "If Communism Takes Over" from a friend of mine in Bradenton, Florida. Your tract scores a center V-5 and I would like to tuck a copy in all my business and personal mail.

Am enclosing my check for $2.00 and request you send me as many copies of the aforementioned tract as appropriate.

E. V. Chandler
Anna Maria, Florida

I have a copy of a small leaflet by you called "For Women Only," and would like to get as many copies as I can for the 20-cent fee enclosed.

I'm doing what I can and try to buy articles for distribution, and any I get free. I'm a leader in a small conservative club and it takes time and effort plus money to keep going.

I think this leaflet will arouse some of the less concerned better-than-anything else would.

Thank you and may you continue your work for the Lord and for our country.

Mrs. Nelson Black
Tustin, Michigan

I would like to order the following tracts: 500 "If Communism Takes Over" and 500 "For Women Only."

Our family doctor is now sending a tract out in each bill and he also is going to contact five other doctors that he knows, so it would seem that I will be needing quite a few tracts.

I would also like one copy of "Communism and Socialism" by Walther.

Mr. James Davis
Los Angeles, California

I received some of your tracts while in Memphis at Rev. Robert Lemmon's church on Faxon Avenue on "Why Ministers Should Fight Communism."

It is such a good one for ministers and I want to mail them to as many as I can. I know there are a lot of preachers that are telling their people about what's going on, but I'm sure a lot are not doing it.

Mrs. E. F. Allsbrook
Mobile, Alabama

Please send me 50 copies of "While Men Slept" and a mixture of the other tracts.

Enclosed is $2.00. Enjoy your tracts. Keep fighting. Millions of conservatives are fighting with you.

Pointed Paragraphs

By REV. MARTIN LANKOW

"FOR 40 YEARS refugees have fled in terror before the red hammer and sickle and have poured out their woeful tales of horror in countless books." Paul Neipp in "Why Ministers Should Fight Communism." This atheistic philosophy is a moral cancer and "bent on wiping Christianity and all that is good and noble and virtuous of the face of the earth." An alerted and awakened clergy can do much to keep what freedom we have left.

WHAT ABOUT YOUR CHURCH? Atheist Madalyn Murray, who has said that "Churches are leeches on society," heads an atheistic society whose 5000 members, we are told, send in $1 or more per month to support her godless cause. How many Christians will anxiously mail in their regular offerings?

SHOULD ATHEISTS SHAPE OUR LIVES? Should they be permitted to shape all Americans to their image, refuse to salute the flag, refuse to believe that all are "endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights"? Didn't they know that "the cornerstone of our republic is belief and faith in God?"

THE COMMUNIST TEACHER: "He is expected to take a leading part in the battle against religion. Not only is it his duty to inculcate in his pupils the militant atheism expected from the Soviet citizen, he must also go into the homes of the 'unconverted' and try to persuade the parents to give up the religious education of their children." And sometimes "give public lectures on the evil of religion." Oct. 1964, Phi Delta Kappan.

ETERNAL VIGILANCE: How to recognize and how to counteract one of the communists' most deadly cold-war weapons — the vicious "manipulated" demonstration is told by Eugene H. Methvin in the January Reader's Digest. For many this will be a real eye-opener.

IF you wish to keep your church, your Bible, your Sunday School, your family prayers, Church weddings, funerals, baptisms, Confirmations, and missionaries abroad and spiritual counsellors at home, then Fight Communism! Why not face the facts. The Communists tell us this is a fight to the finish. We cannot kill termites by painting the house! We cannot defeat Communism by ignoring it!

SWEDISH SOCIALISM: Has a paternalistic government provided a housing paradise in Sweden without slums? As of Sept. 20, 1964, Stockholmers must wait in line for 10 years for an apartment, the New York Times says. Socialism, wherever it rears its head, is destructive of individual freedom and personal responsibility. This is culled from "No Place To Live" by Dean Russell in December, 1964 The Freeman.

"Give me security or give me death!"
Is not what Patrick Henry saith!"

What the country really needs is a good five-cent nickel.
"BENEATH THE CROSS OF JESUS" — "Something of the ultimate in nonsense was spoken at the pastoral conference of the American Lutheran Church in session at the church seminary at St. Paul. According to the Minneapolis Star of Jan. 6, 1964, Lutheran pastors were told to be more interested in reading everything by Martin Luther King, Jr., than by Martin Luther. This advice to be sure to read what Dr. Martin Luther King has written is not only nonsense. It is the sheerest blasphemy. For King, by his own documented statement, finds, like other so-called preachers of our day, no use in his work for the blood atonement, the substitutionary atonement of Jesus . . . If this blasphemy is not decisively challenged, then indeed the sun has set for that church." Paul Ylvisaker, Jan. 28, 1965, Lutheran Sentinel.

A DIME IS A DOLLAR with all the taxes taken out!

DISARM? "Let no one think that in negotiating with the Communists we should reject the threat of force. On the contrary, it is only through the imminent threat of application of our military power that the Communists can be compelled to negotiate seriously for the alleviation of the basic issues between their world and ours. We must be prepared to accept the risk of war if we hope to avoid war." Admiral C. Turner Joy.

"THE COMMUNISTS, THE SAME BREED OF BANDITS, they are ruthless in their exploitation of weakness; they stop, look and listen only when confronted with force!" Gen. Mark Clark.

APPEASEMENT! "Above all; we must abandon the hopes that go with the weakness of appeasement. We are dealing with people who respond only to strength!" Gen. John R. Deane.

COMPROMISE? "There can be no compromise with atheistic Communism — no half-way in the preservation of freedom and religion. It must be all or nothing!" Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

NOTHING NEW: The first "communist" settlement in the U.S. was Jamestown, Va., which disappeared. The second in 1620 was Plymouth Rock. After starving several years they discovered "capitalism." This system brought blessings and also the first Thanksgiving Day! What causes the continual rise of communism? It is a beautiful dream. From each according to his ability, to each according to his needs. To the ignorant who can dream, this means that each person will only have to do what he is able to do, but he will receive all that he needs. Each dreamer believes he will produce little, but receive much, because he is able to produce little, but needs much.

5TH COLUMN: "Here in New York City, you Americans have the biggest fifth column in the world. — The United Nations." — Lord Beaverbrook.

TAKEN FOR A RIDE? "Supposing a group of citizens in your community would attempt a house-to-house collection for Castro's Cuba, how much money do you think they'd raise? . . . Yet when millions (1963-1964, $2,336,680) of our tax dollars are used to promote Communism through the United Nations and its Agencies, scarcely anyone bats an eye." Hope Magazine, Oct. 1964.

An Analysis of the Rebellion at the University of California As Applied Marxism-Leninism

BY DR. FRED SCHWARZ

Rumblings of revolution coming from the campus of the University of California at Berkeley should shatter the illusions of those who contend that communism in America is a spent force and represents no significant national danger. The well-organized and sustained campaign of mass demonstrations and civil disobedience of the so-called FREE SPEECH MOVEMENT is a new phenomenon in American University life. Communists have been active as participants and leaders.

It is imperative that the remarkable events at Berkeley be studied as an application of the science of Marxism-Leninism so that the Communist strategy may be recognized, its dangers evaluated, and intelligent programs undertaken to prevent escalation of such riotous behavior throughout the campuses of the nation.

Communists claim to be practitioners of a science which they call "Marxism-Leninism." This science involves the harnessing of existing social forces in the service of world revolution. A scientist does not create a force, he uses it. Nautical scientists take the wind and make it drive a boat against itself. Marxist-Leninist scientists take the winds of freedom and make them drive society on the reefs of totalitarian slavery.

Communism advances by a series of steps. The first three are: 1) The recruitment of Communist members, 2) The forging of Communist leaders, 3) The utilization of social forces by Communist leaders to advance the Communist objectives.

The rebellion at U.C. advanced the Communist cause in all these departments.

The university campus has always served as the best Communist recruiting ground. The idea that communism appeals to the poor, the illiterate, and the oppressed is a delusion. The poor, the illiterate, and the oppressed form social groups which are subject to the exploitation of scientific Communists. Before these forces can be exploited, it is necessary to recruit and train the Communists to exploit them. It is important to differentiate between the exploiter and the exploited. This is not always easy, particularly when it concerns members of Communist fronts. To classify the exploited as Communists is a grave error. To ignore the possibility that an individual who consistently serves the Communist cause is a secret Communist, even though he denies he is a Communist, is stupid. Communist morality teaches the legitimacy of the denial of Communist membership in many circumstances. Nevertheless, communism demands leadership and these leaders must first be recruited and trained.

During such demonstrations, many students become emotionally involved. They suddenly discover a cause which adds luster to their lives. They observe and admire the skill, courage, and devotion certain individual leaders are showing in their cause. When they learn that these leaders are Communists or Communist sympathizers, their admiration tends to embrace not only the individual but communism also. Their interest in communism is stimulated and it becomes easy to enroll them in a Communist front such as a DuBois Club as a step towards the final objective of Communist Party membership: If they do not travel the full journey to Communist membership, they are of great value as activists in various Communist causes.

The transformation of the Communist member into a Communist cadre or leader remains a constant Communist objective. The members are required to study Communist theory and participate in Communist activity. Those who tire of the discipline involved are simply cast off or retained for routine activities. Those who submit to discipline, absorb theory, and show practical skill in agitation, rise in the ranks of leadership. They become, in Communist terms, "cadres."

A number of student personalities have emerged as leaders of the "Free Speech Movement." One of these is Bettina Aptheker, daughter of the leading American Communist theoretician, Herbert Aptheker. She has been catapulted into national prominence as a speaker on university campuses with a message which may be summed up as, "go thou and do likewise." Others involved include Margaret Lima, daughter of Northern California Communist Party Chairman, Albert J. Lima; and Lee Goldblatt, daughter of identified Communist, Louis Goldblatt, Secretary-Treasurer of Harry Bridges International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union.

The primary social force utilized was the student desire for free speech. Free speech tends to be uncritically worshipped by university students so that they respond emotionally to any alleged attack upon it. While freedom of speech is most important, it must be exercised under law in a society of free men. We live under the rule of law not under unlimited personal freedom. The former system creates constitutional democracy, the latter anarchy.

The dilemma confronting society is that the exercise of freedom by one individual may deny freedom to another individual. If a man is free to say anything he wishes under all circumstances, he is free to state that he has placed a bomb in the luggage loaded on a given airplane. If no bomb is present, all he has done is to speak freely. The consequences are that the airplane is grounded, the luggage unloaded and searched, and the passengers are denied their "Freedom of Movement." In individual cases, the consequences of this delay may be grave. Thus, the exercise of unlimited freedom of speech by one individual denies freedom to many others.

This dilemma is resolved by the institution of law. Every law written limits a freedom. Laws are necessary and good when this limitation enlarges the total area of freedom for all concerned.

The important thing is that laws should be instituted by duly constituted authority derived from the unfettered, expressed will of the people and not by the whim of some faceless bureaucrat or illegitimate authority imposed by force.

Since the laws imposing certain restraints on the students were formulated by duly constituted authority, and legal constitutional channels were available to amend these laws, civil disobedience was unnecessary. It was an exercise of mob power skillfully organized and exploited.

The objectives of the Communists were many and achieved in considerable measure. These objectives include:

- 1) The intimidation of university authorities throughout the entire country.
- 2) The exploitation of faculty resentment of authority.
- 3) The creation of an emotional climate favorable to future demonstrations.
- 4) The projection of Communists as leaders.
- 5) The restoration of Communists to respectability on university campuses.
- 6) The removal of all restrictions against Communist speakers on college campuses.
- 7) The creation of a psychology favorable to the hiring of Communist professors.
- 8) An image of police brutality.
- 9) The prevention through intimidation of future investigations by the House Committee on Un-American Activities and the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee.
- 10) The involvement of outside agitators in university affairs.
- 11) Student control over all the activities of the university.

Space does not permit an analysis of the degree of success achieved towards the realization of each of these objectives. It is obvious that every university administration across the country will be alarmed at the possibility of similar events on their campuses, and they will be prone to make concessions designed to avoid such occurrences. The power of blackmail by student agitators is immeasurably increased. Should hearings be scheduled in any city by the House Committee on Un-American Activities or the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee involving Communist infiltration in education, the authorities in that city will be afraid of student demonstrations and riots, and pressures will be brought to bear on the Committee not to hold the hearings.

In summation we may say the Communists have won a major victory.

A thorough understanding of the entire Communist strategy is a major contribution to its defeat. Ignorance is essential to the achievement of the Communist objective. We should constantly remind ourselves that during the entire period of the Communist conquest of Cuba, the term "Communism" was rarely mentioned. The many patriots supporting Fidel Castro learned tragically, when it was too late, the real forces that were motivating and directing their leader.

De-Christianization of Education.

public mockery. Contrast also the recognized present-day educational policy of Columbia University — founded, 1754 — with its original educational policy as this was set forth in an advertisement that appeared in the New York Gazette over two hundred years ago. The advertisement stated: "The chief things that are aimed at in this college are to teach and engage the children to know God and Jesus Christ and to love and serve Him in all sobriety, Godliness, righteousness, in life with a perfect heart and a willing mind."

How has this foremost stronghold of progressive education and the greatest teacher of American teachers fallen!

What is true of Harvard and Columbia is true of all eleven universities in the East, every one of which started as a Christian institution.

Let me make one more comparison of what once was and now is.

$300,000 for Bibles

In 1777 our Continental Congress voted an expenditure of $300,000 to buy, mind you, copies of the Bible for purposes of distributing them throughout the country. Contrast this with the recent Supreme Court decision which in effect forbade the Gideons to give away New Testaments to pupils on public school property.

Note, once our government bought Bibles for its citizenry. Now it may not be given to children on Government property!

In its effect, if not in its purpose, present day secular instruction is by its neglect robbing our nation of its religious character. What loss could be greater!

"Endowed By Their Creator"

Although by no means all the people went to church in the early days, the official leadership of that day was committed to a Christian view of life; for example, the Declaration of Independence contains these striking words: "We hold these truths to be self-evident that all men are created equal and are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights." This is not the type of diplomatic language which we have become accustomed to in our day.

There are many today who look upon the erstwhile American school with its Biblical influence as something which we have outgrown — something which has been outmoded by the advance in statism. We do not agree with those who hold this view. To believe the Bible is to believe that its teaching is as new as it is old. The Word of God is eternal, unchanging truth. This Word places the responsibility of educating children primarily upon the shoulders of their parents. See Deut. 6, 4 & 8 and Eph. 6.4. Since education is a parental responsibility we must look upon the public school — especially in a Christian community — as evidence of parental neglect.

It was not the State but the Reformation that gave birth to popular education. And we do not need the State to keep it alive. What we need is another Reformation that will lead us back to God's Word and its parental mandate to teach children in the fear of the Lord for a state school divorced from religion is not a boon but a threat to human society.

A man by the name of W. Brown has well said, "Without religious motive any education is adding power to irresponsibility."

"Mere education," said Theodore Roosevelt, "without divine guidance is like handing a gun to an irresponsible man."

Plug the Pill

A 72-year-old Episcopal priest in Phoenix has criticized Bishop Pike for changing slogans from "Ban the Bomb" to "Plug the Pill." Pike is one of the world's leading exponents of birth control. The Chronicle of Feb. 3, 1965: "The Rev. Brunton uses poetry as his form of criticism, his latest effort ending this way: 'O Bishop Pike, we'd be relieved,

And give our thanks with heart and soul,
If on the night you were conceived,
Your folks had known of birth control."

BERKELEY — ONE OF MANY

This article is reprinted from FI-PO NEWS, publication of FIRE AND POLICE RESEARCH ASSOCIATION of Los Angeles.

1964 was the year of the students' revolt at University of California, Berkeley, but it was also the year of revolts, sit-ins, demonstrations throughout the campuses of the United States. TRINITY COLLEGE, Hartford, Conn. Student protest new regulations governing liquor consumption.

UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA, Several hundred students demonstrated against a new fine arts building being placed in a tree-shaded area.

UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS, picketed against the use of blackface in a campus minstrel. COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY, New York, About 300 students were told, "The way to support the Berkeley students is not to send telegrams but go down to the administration buildings and UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN, a take over."

student political party staged a demonstration demanding campus democracy, more money for teaching, increased student wages, and a lower cost of living on the campus.

UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK, Students staged a two month campaign favoring free tuition and worked to defeat candidates for the state legislature.

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN, 500 students rallied for support of Berkeley students.

UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO, 500 students met in support of Berkeley students.

QUEENS COLLEGE, New York, 500 or 600 jammed into the auditorium to hear Mario Savio (as a former student there) and to support Berkeley students.

What People Are Saying About Berkeley

DR. ROBERT M. HUTCHINS (Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions) "... A university where no debate is going on is as good as dead."

ASSEMBLYMAN, WILLIAM F. STANTON (D-San Jose) "I am here supporting you."

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY PROFESSORS called for the dismissal of Edward W. Strong, University Chancellor, who has restricted the campus activities of the FSM (Free Speech Movement).

STEVE WEISSMAN, (a graduate student and FSM organizer) "Immediate removal of all police from this campus, now and forever... that the university refuse to press charges against the students arrested."

ASSEMBLYMAN WILLIE BROWN (D-San Francisco) and JOHN BURTON (D-San Francisco) declared, "the refusal of the University to recognize a fundamental constitutional question is at the core of the dispute."

BAYARD RUSTIN, "use of the Oakland police, highway patrol, and strong-arm methods is deplorable."

JOHN LEWIS, (Student Non-Violent Comm.) said, "We support our brothers and sisters at the University of California."

STUDENTS FOR DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY, asking for protests to be sent to Kerr and Gov. Brown and also money to aid the students."

JAMES FARMER (CORE) pledged "what support we can to Univ. of Calif. students in their political freedom efforts."

MARIO SAVIO, (leader in FSM) "We insist on using other means than talk to get our rights; we will break the regulations again and again and again."

FRONTIER MAGAZINE (Jan. 1965) "The University Administration dedicated to politics, money and power refused even the appearance of a crack in its stony adamance."

W. E. B. DUBOIS CLUBS, "urge all to write, work, support the student's position in this fight."

THEN THERE ARE OTHERS WHO SAY

VALLEY TIMES "The fuzzy-brained intellectuals of the University of California, the State Board of Education and the Regents are reaping the crop they have sowed. Rioters, insurrectionists, undisciplined and uncontrolled, set loose by the same breed of Communist agitators who have been invited to speak on campus, have defied all rules, regulations and authority of the administration of the Univ. of California, Berkeley."

LOS ANGELES TIMES "The immediate expulsion of those who by their actions have forfeited the privilege of attending the Univ. of Calif. is the obvious and necessary first step."

SENATOR JACK SCHRADE (R-Del-Mar) has introduced legislation regarding the Univ. of Calif. controversy:

PEGGY YOUNG (UC Senior and San Gabriel resident) "the movement has become a catchall for any one with a grievance against the administration."

ASSEMBLYMAN HOWARD J. THELIN (R-Glendale), demanded expulsion of students who participated in riotous demonstrations at Berkeley.

GOV. EDMUND BROWN, "This is pure and simple, an attempt on the part of the students to use the campus unlawfully by soliciting funds and recruiting students for off-campus activities."

DON MULFORD (R-Berkeley) State Assemblyman, charged the student riots were "Communist inspired" and said he would ask for legislative investigation.

DR. CLARK KERR (UC President) "Left-wing students stimulated by non-student professionals were held to blame for the rioting on the Berkeley campus."

LOS ANGELES HERALD EXAMINER. Students who flout the discipline of the University should be thrown out. Retain those who want to go to college to learn, not to stir up subversion and revolt.

WHY WORK?

In Alameda County, California, a man with four children can draw $232.50 per month welfare without doing a stroke of work. That amounts to $1.52 per hour for a normal work week. When a recent spot check was made 613 families were found to be drawing such benefits. Nevertheless when the strawberry growers of the region needed 300 workers and offered good wages and free transportation to and from work only one person accepted. Under urging from the Welfare Department 6 showed up on the third day and a few more later. Nine workers was the maximum recruited for work because it was easier to remain retired on relief than to accept the available jobs. — Christian Economics.

Wisdom ala Pike

Before Stanford law students forum the San Jose News Mercury, Jan. 19, 1965: "It's time for California to adopt humane laws governing abortion and homosexuality, the Rt. Rev. James A. Pike, Episcopal Bishop of California, said Friday... Homosexual acts between adults in private should not constitute a criminal offense, he said. The branch of my church in England has endorsed such a change in the law, he noted." — Blu-Print, Feb. 2, 1965.

SECURITY MATTER - C
(OO: NEW YORK)

Re Pittsburgh letter to Bureau, 5/8/62.

The 2/8/65 issue of the "Post-Gazette," a daily Pittsburgh, Pa., newspaper in an article captioned "SEEGER to SING HERE NEXT WEEK" set out that PETE SEEGER would give a performance on 2/20/65 at the Carnegie Music Hall, Pittsburgh, Pa. He was being sponsored by an organization at Carnegie Institute of Technology called "Ceildih" and the Committee for the Promotion of the Arts at Duquesne University.

The 2/5/65 issue of "The Pitt News," a student publication at the University of Pittsburgh, carried an advertisement for the 2/20/65 performance stating that all tickets were $1.50 each.

On 2/24/65, [redacted] who has furnished reliable information in the past and who should be concealed at her request, advised that all of the 2,000 tickets printed for the performance were sold. She made available a one page, student-prepared throw-away attacking the subject and said that this had been given wide distribution at Duquesne University and Carnegie Institute of Technology. She said that she was not at liberty to divulge the names of those responsible for the throw-away. The original has been returned to [redacted] at her request and two copies of same are enclosed for the Bureau and New York.

SING TO "THERE'S A PANNISHOP ON THE CORNER"

I'm a COLLEGE, at Carnegie, in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania
And I'm sponsored by two campus groups!
Do they KNOW that I'll be singing
Red Communist propaganda---
Or are they just simply my dupes???

At Duquesne, The new student paper raises cream-puff issues concerning some old newspapers burned, the banning of sick, sick Feiffer skirts, etc. At Tech, there is always, controversy about "academic freedom," etc., among the students. But on both campuses, the shocking issue, which if widely known would rock both institutions to their very foundations, goes begging for attention! It is the joint sponsoring, by certain "folk singing" groups at these two campuses, at Carnegie Music Hall on Saturday, Feb. 20, 1965, of an IDENTIFIED COMMUNIST "folk singer" PETE SEEGER! Further, the book stores on these two campuses are selling the tickets!

Who is PETE SEEGER? Just about the top Communist entertainer in the United States today. He appears regularly before known Communist front groups in N.Y. and elsewhere. His virtues are extolled to the high heavens weekly in THE WORKER. He recently returned from the Soviet Union, where his songs of "social protest" were widely acclaimed. He goes about this country singing "folk music" of his own composition, whose lyrics demean our American way of life while promoting socialistic concepts and sorrowing for the exploited "masses". Folk music? Ask him to render "WE SHALL NOT BE LOVED," set to the tune of a song right out of The People's Song Book, an old Communist publication. Or ask him to bleat out his own parody on "Billy Boy," which lyrics lampoon the treasonous, Communist-led student riots against the House Committee on Un-American Activities at San Francisco in 1960. But above all, patriotic students on both campuses, ask him if he is indeed, AN IDENTIFIED MEMBER OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY, which as you may or may not know, advocates the VIOLENT OVERTHROW OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT! And then ask yourself if this is the kind of "entertainer" you think a campus group ought to be renting a hall and selling tickets for. Did you buy one? DEMAND YOUR MONEY BACK AT THE BOOK STORE, And DEMAND AN INVESTIGATION.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover
Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I have just been alerted that the Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod, of which I am a member, has engaged the services of Pete Seeger, folk singer to appear at Squaw Valley to entertain our Walther League (young people) in July.

We, the parents are aroused and find that even tho' he has a strong communist front activity record he has constantly denied he is a communist. We believe that the Director of Youth Work, Rev. Elmer N. Witt, 875 Dearborn St. Chicago, Ill., is unaware of this mans background. That the president of Synod, a busy man, should be filled in with authentic information from a source that is official, and that it would be from your office.

What is the procedure in requesting that this information be conveyed to our leaders so that they will take action. May I request that you supply this information to the Rev. Oliver R. Harms, D. D. 210 N. Broadway, St. Louis, Mo.?

Please let me know what we can do to avoid this "mistake" which is facing us. Your book "Target Youth" has given me the courage to appeal to you, the stand which you have taken and the abuse too, surely, Mr. Hoover, God knows you are standing while others, even men of the cloth are falling ~~right~~ and left. God have mercy on us all. May he continue to bless you with life, we need you and God knows it.

Gentlemen:

I have heard conflicting reports concerning folk singer Pete Seeger, namely, that he is a card-carrying Communist, ~~that he is merely a Communist sympathizer~~, and that he has no connection with this element at all.

I am wondering if you have anything in your records which would be available to me in answer to this question. He has been engaged to sing at the national convention of my Church's youth group this summer and I should like to be in a position to advise the young people of the District over which I have responsibility.

Very sincerely yours,

POPULAR FOLK SONGS

- Folk Singer Pete Seeger's Visit to Japan -

At the invitation of K. B. K., folk singer, baritone, and five-string Banjo and Guitar player, Pete Seeger, arrived in Japan.

Pete Seeger was born in New York in 1919. His father is an outstanding musician and his mother is a violinist. Leaving Harvard University without finishing the whole course, he started a journey to collect folk songs because he was fascinated by them. He made a team with Watday Gasley (phonetic), a poet from Oklahoma. During World War II, he served four years in the Armed Forces. Following his discharge from the military service, he concluded a contract with the Columbia Company in 1958.

Pete Seeger is respected for his warm personality. He is a pacifist. However, for some reasons, he was questioned by the Un-American Activities Investigation Committee the year before last and his activities are often hindered by right-wing organizations. In spite of these difficulties, he continues his singing. He is a man without material desires. He lives with his Japanese wife and three children in a log cabin on a hill overlooking the Hudson River. This strange folk singer/^{is} in the limelight because of the recent folk song boom in America.

At a press conference held in the Tokyo Hotel on the 11th, he made the following remarks: "Originally well folk singers were amateurs. In this sense, I am not a folk singer. Belafonte, Joan Baez and I are professional folk singers.

I am engaged in the selection of music notes at the Jazz Festival in Newport and can sing all kinds of folk songs originated from the church to the bar.

It is said that folk songs are sung in America today to the extent that 500,000 guitars are sold a year. In regard to the way of singing folk songs, I wrote a book, 'How to Play the Guitar,' 15 years ago, and the 'Kingston Trio' seemed to be influenced by it. I have never imposed my idea on others.

There are many folk songs some of which are old and some have been handed down verbally. In order not to forget them, we have to work on them continuously. I am going to sing those in Japan, which I have written recently."

The program consists of the following songs:

1. Lovely Small Bird (Banjo)
2. Talking Texas (Blues)
2. IT Means Texas (Blues)
3. What a Beautiful City! (Spiritual Song)
4. Michael Rowed the Boat Ashore (Labor Song)
5. Woodcutter's Song (Labor Song)
6. Open the Cotton Sack (Negro Song)
7. Must be Victorious (Free Song of the Complete Democratic Movement)
8. Barbara Allen (English Ballad)

9. Texas Men (Satirical Song of Exploitation)
10. Maestrom of Marriage (Satirical Song)
11. Harry Simms (Labor Ballad)
12. Atom Speaks (Modern Song)
13. Little Boxes (Modern Song of Suburban Life)
14. Norma Jean (Marilyn Monroe's Death)
15. Limony Bell (Welch Miners' Song)

GREAT FOLK SINGER PETE SEEGER ARRIVES IN JAPAN

- A Singer Who is A Topic of Conversation Despite His Strange Private Life -

Pete Seeger, the greatest folk singer in the world, will arrive in Japan on October 9 and give his first performance at the Welfare Pension Hall, Shijuku, on November 6, followed by his tour in Japan.

After the termination of World War II, many American popular singers have visited Japan but Pete Seeger is the only singer who can sing Western and country songs. He is not only a folk singer but also a composer, writer and movie producer of folk songs and one of the best five-string banjo players. He was born in New York on May 3, 1919. His father is an outstanding musician and his mother is a violinist. Ever since his childhood, he has loved music. When he was 16 years old, he and his father attended the folk festival in Amuville (sic), North Carolina. At that time, he was fascinated by folk songs. Leaving Harvard University without finishing the whole course, (he and President Kennedy were in the same class), he started a journey in America. Shortly afterwards he made a team with Watday Gasley (phonetic), a poet from Oklahoma. This team has become the "almanac singers." This group, which may be called the founder of the modern folk chorus, was very active. However, on account of World War II, the group was dissolved.

After serving in the Armed Forces for four years, Seeger organized "The Weavers" in 1949. The following year he made a great hit with "Good Night Aileen" and built the present foundation for the folk boom. Leaving "the Weavers" in 1958, he became a soloist again. At that time, he concluded a contract with the Columbia Company. He is a baritone and a great Banjo player but likes to sing with his audience together. He sings in all places from Carnegie Hall to night clubs. No matter where he sings, he draws a large audience.

Pete Seeger is respected for his warm personality. However, he was questioned by the Un-American Activities Committee the year before last whether he had associated with Communists but he refused to answer the question. For his contempt of the court, he was sentenced to a year's imprisonment. Finally he was released on bail of $2,000 but his activities were hindered by fanatic right-wing organizations that created a violent incident against a student organization for the protection of Seeger. In this manner, he is a straight and independent fellow.

Seeger's private life is different from others. He opposes America's almighty materialism and lives in a log cabin on a hill overlooking the Hudson River. It is generally agreed that he is a man without material desires. He married a Japanese woman named Toshi Ota in 1943, to whom he owes his success. It is said that they have three children.

TRANSLATION FROM JAPANESE

PETE SEEGER

Pete Seeger recalls that 23 years ago, a young man, in blue jean trousers and a flannel shirt, entertained an audience with a five-string banjo in Rapid City, South Dakota. It was a wonderful night. A woman gave the banjo player three silver coins saying, "It makes no difference now" and thanked him for his entertainment.

This young man, Pete Seeger, now entertains an audience of 3,000 in Carnegie Hall. He charges $3,000 for a night's performance. On the other hand, he sings often at churches for nothing.

In spite of his great success, he remains unchanged. He travels in an old station wagon and likes to take his family with him. He goes everywhere if his singing is wanted but he is indifferent about his pay. When he is in a good mood, he does everything to please his audience.

While playing his banjo, Pete says, "I learned my songs from a friend of mine who had learned them from a woodcutter. The woodcutter's name is Yankee John Garsha (phonetic) and he knew many songs." Keeping the time with the steps, he sings the "Blue Mountain Lake."

Come all you bold fellers
where'er you may be.

Come sit down a while and listen to me.

The truth I will tell you

A music critic made a comment on Pete Seeger's voice, "He understands the essence and mood of the music so well that it looks as if he is playing an instrument." He skillfully expresses his feelings to his audience. He has produced many records with the Folkway Record Company. At the present time, he is under contract with the Columbia Record Company.

Pete's mother is a violinist and his father is a music professor at the University of California in Los Angeles.

PETER SEEGER, STAR OF AMERICAN FOLK MUSIC

By Toyo Nakamura

Peter Seeger was born in New York on May 3, 1919. Both his parents were musicians. Accompanied by his parents, he attended a folk music festival in North Carolina in 1945 (sic), when he was 16 years old and for the first time, he was fascinated by folk songs. In 1938, he left Harvard University without finishing the complete course and started collecting American folk songs. In the meantime, he organized a group of folk song singers. When World War II broke out, the group was dissolved. Peter served in the Armed Forces for four years. Since his discharge from the Armed Forces, Peter has studied American folk music and entertained the public with a 5-string banjo and a 12-string guitar.

Peter's humble living is well-known. He dislikes "Americanism" based on material civilization, and built a hut on the bank of the Hudson River. In 1943, he married former Toshi Oda, a Japanese woman, and they have three children.

Re: Peter Seeger
Security Matter -C

"The Worker", an East Coast Communist newspaper, edition of June 16, 1964, page 5, paragraph 1, contained an article with the caption, "Pete Seeger Back With New Harvest of World's Songs". The article revealed that Peter Seeger had just returned from a ten-month world-wide tour.

By means of a pretext conducted on June 22, 1964, it was ascertained that Peter Seeger had returned to the United States and is presently working out of New York, New York.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

A Soviet Balalaika Is Added To Pete Seeger's Repertoire

By ESTHER SHIELDS

MOSCOW — Pete Seeger, back in Moscow after a triumphal swing through other Soviet cities, was telling me about his enthusiastic audiences, when a birthday present arrived from his new Soviet friends. It was a balalaika, sent by the Philharmonic society.

You'll be playing it in your next concert, predicted one of Pete's friends, and that will really bring the house down.

Even without the balalaika,

Pete had no difficulty in winning his audiences in Leningrad, Kiev, Yalta, Tbilisi and Moscow. At least two concerts in every city.

"I couldn't imagine a friendlier audience," he exclaimed. "At the economics institute last night, the crowd showed great eagerness in singing along with me. They sang well, too. And I had fun singing with youngsters at one of Moscow's special English school sessions." Soviet folklorists brought a group of men and women in their sixties to sing old-time songs for him, songs for weddings and holiday dancing, pensive and humorous love songs.

Pete added film footage of these singers to his world-tour collection.

"I filmed one of the Piatnitsky Chorus musicians, too," Pete said.

"I was very glad to hear this chorus sing. I have admired them for a long time."

Pete also met with young Soviet composers, who performed their own songs and other compositions.

The Seegers also visited a Ukrainian collective farm, where Pete sang with local farm workers.

They visited the Kremlin Palace Museum, pioneer palaces and a Moscow factory.

"I was lucky, too, in being invited to Soviet people's homes, where we could talk informally," Pete added.

Now the Seegers are on the homeward course. For more than eight months they have been on the go from country to country. England, Scotland and Ireland are the last stops. They return to the U.S. in June.

Re: Peter Seeger

Seeger was born on May 3, 1919, at Manhattan, New York. Seeger's permanent address is Dutchess Junction, Beacon, New York, and he is self-employed as an entertainer, singer of folk songs and banjo player. He is currently on a world concert tour as an entertainer.

Seeger is described as follows: race, white; sex, male; height, 6'1"; weight, 145 pounds; build, slim; hair, brown; eyes, blue; complexion, fair.

According to sources who have furnished reliable information in the past, Seeger was reportedly a Communist Party (CP) member from 1947 to 1949. Seeger identified as a CP member active in the Music II CP Section during the latter part of 1949 or early 1950. During period of 1940 to 1957, Seeger appeared as entertainer at functions of numerous organizations which have been designated by the Attorney General of the U.S. pursuant to Executive Order 10450. During August, 1955, Seeger refused to discuss groups before which he had played when questioned by House Committee on Un-American Activities. On July 25, 1956, Seeger cited for contempt by House of Representatives for his refusal to answer questions before the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA). On March 26, 1957, a Federal indictment for contempt of Congress had been returned in the Southern District of New York against Seeger.

On April 1, 1957, Seeger was arraigned and released on $1,000.00 bail. The April 8, 1961, issue of the "Peoples World," a West Coast Communist newspaper, reflected Seeger received a maximum one year prison sentence for contempt of the HCUA. Seeger was freed on bond pending an appeal of conviction on contempt of Congress charge. On May 18, 1962, Second Circuit Court of Appeals, New York, New York, reversed subject's conviction on contempt of Congress charge. Case against Seeger for contempt of Congress is closed.

On April 15, 1941, [redacted] advised that he had secured two copies of the "Dairy Farmers Union Journal," 1939-1940 and 1940-41. He stated one of the journals contained a photograph entitled "The Vagabond Puppeteers" who were identified as Peter Seeger, Mary Walton, Jerry Oberwager and Harriet Holtzman (100-351424). The individuals were described in the article as college students but the informant advised that they were believed to have been members of the NYC CP who were sent out by the Party to work among the farmers in upstate NY. Informant further advised that the shows put on by those individuals discredited the President and other Government officials. The informant advised that the Puppeteers were not allowed to put on their shows in the State of Vermont.

William Fincke, Director, Manumit School, RD# 2, Bristol, Pa., advised that he had employed Jerome Ziegler (124-3721) as a counselor at the school's summer camp during the Summer of 1946. He described Ziegler as sympathetic to Socialism. Ziegler, on the suggestion of another former counselor, taught the children songs published by People's Songs, Inc., NYC, which were written by Peter Seeger. Fincke described the songs as very "class strugglish though "catchy" and "aggressive". He stated that the songs were originally written as labor songs to excite and stimulate picket lines of striking workers, but that they contained what he described as subtle communist propaganda. Fincke stated that he objected to the songs and had asked Ziegler to stop using them. Ziegler defiantly continued to teach the songs and made an issue of the matter. Fincke stated that the person who was instrumental in having Ziegler use the songs was related to Seeger.

[redacted] (protect identity) advised that Eric Bernay (100-26981) had indicated ownership of the total stock of the Music Room Corporation, thus leading to the conclusion that Bernay was the sole owner.

It was noted that the "Music Room Corporation, also known as the Music Room," had been the subject of some investigation in the NY Office. A confidential source of the Bureau observed what he believed to be an under the counter sale of a record. The informant noted that the record only contained a blank piece of paper in the center of the disk. The informant overheard the record playing and stated "it was about all the ills of Congress, the President, etc. and sounded suspiciously like the voice of Pete Seeger. (no date).

Confidential Informant [redacted] had advised that Seeger was a well known CP entertainer, a former leader of the Almanac Singers and and the National Director of Peoples Songs, Inc. (no date)

It was noted that Bernay had the name of Seeger in his personal address book. It was also noted that Seeger was a contact of one Abel Plenn, who in turn was the subject of inquiry in connection with the investigation of Nathan Gregory Silvermaster. (no date)

[redacted] furnished a letter on 10/5/49, written by Peter Seeger to Barnard Rubin, a columnist of the "DW", NYC, wherein Seeger stated that the letter may not be in time for Rubin to find room for its contents in the May 22nd issue of the "Worker" but was hoping for the best. Seeger further wrote that the release should have gone through the hands of the publicity committee of which Adrienne Claiborne (100-332947) was chairman. Seeger stated that he had sent a copy to Claiborne for her to check and if she desired to change it, she would call Rubin. Seeger stated that if things proceeded O.K. a large turnout would be on hand and one of their main purposes was to sing on picket lines. (no further details).

*Robeson rally was held on 8/27/49.

In an interview on 9/8/49, Mrs. Richard McCahon, 16 West 8th St., NYC, furnished names of persons in the Council of the Actors Equity Association (100-49952) whom she believed to be communists or definite communist sympathizers. During the interview she exhibited a record produced by Encore Records, Inc., entitled "Talking Atom," written by Vera Partlow, which was apparently produced by People's Songs inasmuch as the name appeared upon the face of the recording. Mrs. McCahon played the record and it was noted that the number, which was sung in a hillbilly fashion by Pete Seeger, was designed to follow the CP line on the atomic bomb inasmuch as it expressed the opinion that the US would use the atomic bomb to back up the capitalist form of government and to intimidate other nations.

Mrs. McCahon stated that Seeger, who was well known as a hillbilly singer, subtly used his abilities in that line to place communist propoganda in the minds of his listeners.

Mr. Charles Keppel, 2 Thomas Park, Cambridge, Mass., a chemistry instructor at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge, Mass., advised that in the Spring of 1955, David Michael Steinberg (105-88522) worked on the "fun fair" doing publicity work. The "fun fair" was a money raising activity of the International Students Association. In that activity, Steinberg worked with Peggy Seegar, half sister of Pete Seegar, a well-known singer of folk songs. Pete Seegar, according to Keppel, allegedly associated with a communist element in New York. Seegar was the chief entertainer in at least two performances put on by the Creative Arts Workshop (CAW).

A G-2 report revealed that the CAW was formed in December, 1951, to sponsor cultural activities. As of May, 1954, the CAW was directed by Barbara Anderson who succeeded Leo Rabinovits. Anderson and Rabinovits were both identified as CP members. The CAW was infiltrated by CP members.

This case is being maintained in a P* status in view of the fact the subject is currently traveling outside the US.

The pretext call to the subject's booking agent, Harold Leventhal Agency, 200 West 57th Street, NY, NY, on 7/24/63, was conducted by SA JOSEPH E. MORAN, on 7/24/63, No identification was necessary for this call.

The pretext call to the subject's booking agent on 4/3/64, was made by SA ROBERT E. BOWE to determine the subject's current residence and employment. No identification was necessary as the information was freely given by an unknown female answering the telephone.

Information furnished by [redacted]

[redacted] concerning the subject's travel plans, has been paraphrased in this report and [redacted] has been concealed by a T symbol in order to protect this source.

FOIA(b)(7) - (D)

In addition to the information regarding the subject's passport set forth in the attached report, a review of the subject's file at the Passport Office, US Department of State, on 7/29/63, by IC JAMES W. MURRAY also reflected the following:

PETER SEEGER's passport file reflects that on April 18, 1960, Mr. LEONARD B. BOUDIN, NY Attorney, telephoned Mr. ROBERT D. JOHNSON, Chief Consul, Legal Division, Passport Office, and inquired about the extension of subject's Passport Number 1780911, issued on 9/8/59, it being noted that it had been limited for one year or until 10/10/59, because subject was out on bail - contempt of Congress charge. Mr. BOUDIN stated that the passport had been issued after subject had obtained court permission to leave its jurisdiction, and he wanted to know if the restriction could be removed entirely.

By letter dated 4/20/60, Mr. JOHNSON advised Mr. BOUDIN as follows: "...I believe that to delete the time limitation placed in Mr. SEEGER's passport in accordance with Judge HERLAND's order you should submit a certified copy of an order vacating or modifying the restriction against his leaving the jurisdiction of the U. S. District Court for the Southern District of New York. Upon receipt of this order we can take appropriate steps to extend the passport."

On 4/20/60, Mr. BOUDIN forwarded subject's passport to Miss FRANCES G. KNIGHT, Director, Passport Office, 1717 H Street, N. W., Washington, DC, requesting that "the passport now be extended for the full statutory period of three years from September 8, 1959, and that the special limitation be removed from the passport."

On 5/5/60, Mr. JOHNSON again directed a letter to Mr. BOUDIN, advising him to "submit the order and we will remove the time limitation."

The next piece of correspondence in file is a letter dated 9/8/61, from Mr. BOUDIN to Miss FRANCES G. KNIGHT, which reads as follows:

"Dear Miss KNIGHT:

Some time ago I believe that we deposited with your office the passport of PETER SEEGER with the understanding that it would be returned and validated for travel whenever the court permitted such travel in the light of the indictment and pending appeal in Mr. SEEGER's case.

We are now in receipt from Mr. SEEGER's counsel, Wolf, Popper, Ross, Wolf & Jones, Esqs., of a motion made in the Court of Appeals granting Mr. SEEGER leave to leave the jurisdiction of the Southern District of New York and to travel to Europe, and of a letter from Mr. SEEGER's attorneys indicating that the motion was granted subject to the condition precedent that Mr. SEEGER appear upon notice.

"Would you be good enough to return to us Mr. SEEGER's passport validating it for travel up to and including November 25, 1961."

On 9/9/61, Mr. JOHNSON directed a letter to Mr. BOUDIN advising him that inasmuch as subject's passport was originally issued on 9/9/59, it had expired and it would be necessary for subject to execute a renewal application.

On 9/21/61, subject executed the renewal form indicating that he desired to travel to the United Kingdom (England, Scotland, Wales) and the Netherlands for a five-week business trip. He indicated that he would depart from the Port of Montreal, Canada, by ship on October 13, 1961. He was scheduled to return by air. He listed his wife, residing at Dutchess Junction, Beacon, NY, as the person to be notified in the event of death or accident. He listed his permanent residence and mailing address as being the same as his wife's. He advised that he had made "a dozen or more short trips - several days each - United Kingdom" from 9/20/59 to 10/9/59.

Hawaii

The August 21, 1963 edition of the "Honolulu Advertiser", a daily newspaper of Honolulu, reported that PETE SEEGER, the folk singer, had arrived in Honolulu the day previous on a trip that would cover some 22 countries in ten months. The article noted that SEEGER would give concerts at the Orvis Auditorium at the University of Hawaii, on August 22 and 24, 1963, and after a five day stay, would move on to Western Samoa and then across the Pacific. The article related that SEEGER was accompanied by his wife and their three children.

Australia

The September 25, 1963 edition of "Variety", a show business weekly publication, on Page 1, contained an article datelined Melbourne, Australia, September 24, 1963, which reflected that the subject had appeared at Melbourne, Australia's Town Hall on September 12 and 16, 1963. This article stated that SEEGER was well received by those interested in folk singing and SEEGER had been mixing with Australian folk singers, giving lectures, demonstrations and concerts. SEEGER was described as one of "the best unofficial ambassadors for America ever to come Down Under".

Indonesia and Japan

The November 13, 1963 edition of "Variety", mentioned above, contained an article which reflected that PETER SEEGER, as of that time, had arrived in Japan for a six week concert tour. The article also stated that SEEGER had arrived in Japan after spending ten days in Indonesia as guest of the Minister of Education. SEEGER is scheduled to travel to India following his concert tour in Japan.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~Nigeria, Ghana, Egypt and Israel

The January 15, 1964 edition of "Variety", mentioned above, contained an advertisement regarding PETE SEEGER, which reflected that SEEGER, as of that time, was on a world-wide concert tour, and in January, 1964, would be appearing in Nigeria, Ghana, Egypt and Israel.

England

The November 13, 1963 edition of "Variety", mentioned above, contained an article reflecting that SEEGER's booking agent had returned the week previous from a trip to England, where he had made arrangements for the subject to appear in England. The article reflected that SEEGER is scheduled to appear in Manchester, England on February 22, 1964, the Royal Festival Hall, London, February 29, 1964, and will appear on the "Sunday Night at the Palladium TV Show" on February 23, 1964. The article also noted that SEEGER will be doing "TV" in Amsterdam, Brussels and Luxembourg.

Italy and Israel

On February 19, 1964, NY T-3 advised that the subject, while in Rome, Italy, resided at the Hotel Parioli from January 11, 1964 to January 19, 1964. On January 19, 1964, the subject departed for Tel Aviv, Israel. (S)

NY T-3 further advised that the subject returned to Rome, Italy, from Tel Aviv, Israel, on February 3, 1964, and resided at the Hotel Parioli, Rome. On February 4, 1964, the subject departed from the Fiumicino Airport, Rome, en route to Vienna, Austria. (S)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The March 31, 1964 edition of the "Poughkeepsie Journal", a Poughkeepsie, New York daily newspaper, contained an article datelined Warsaw (Associated Press), which reflected that the subject had arrived in Poland on that date, but had lost his voice due to having exhausted his vocal cords giving eleven performances during the previous eight days in Czechoslovakia. The article reflected that SEEGER whispered to 35 Polish writers at a news conference.

The file maintained for the subject at the Passport Office, United States Department of State, Washington, D. C., reviewed by IC JAMES W. MURRAY on July 29, 1963, contained the following information:

Passport Number D453486 was issued to PETER SEEGER on June 17, 1963. It is not valid for travel to Albania, Cuba and those portions of China, Korea and Viet-Nam under Communist control. It will expire June 16, 1966, and may be renewed for two years.

Application for passport was dated May 22, 1963, at Poughkeepsie, New York, and contained following information as indicated by subject:

His parents were shown as: 15 230 EARLHAM ROAD

MRS. CHARLES LEWIS SEEGER, born November 14, 1886, at Mexico City, Mexico.
PACIFIC PALISADES, CALIF.

Mother: CONSTANCE DECLYVVER EDSON, born November 28, 1886, at Denver, Colorado.

He was last married July 20, 1943, to TOSHI-ALINE
HOHTA SEEGER, born July 1, 1922, at Munich, Germany.
Marriage has not terminated.

He intended to depart from the Port of San Francisco, California, on August 19, 1963, by air for a stay abroad of ten months for a "concert tour". Proposed itinerary was shown as: Australia, Japan, India, Africa, Israel, Italy, France, Greece, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Sweden, Russia, Holland, Great Britain, and Denmark.

He was described as follows:

Height	6 feet 1½ inches
Hair	Brown
Eyes	Brown
Marks	None
Occupation	Musician

He listed his father, residing at 15230 Earlham Road, Pacific Palisades, California, as the person to be notified in the event of death or accident.

In applying for his 1963 passport, subject utilized form DSP-11 revised in December, 1961. Such form contains no statements or questions regarding Communist Party membership; however, it does contain a "warning" regarding provisions of Section 6 of the Internal Security Act of 1950. Pages 3 and 4, one of which contains the "warning" were missing and, accordingly, it is not known whether or not subject actually saw the "warning".

II. CONTEMPT OF CONGRESS PROCEEDINGS AGAINST THE SUBJECT

On May 18, 1962, Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA) DAVID KLINGSBERG, Southern District of New York (SDNY), New York, New York, advised SA FREDERICK H. STEVENS that on that date, the Second Circuit Court of Appeals had reversed the subject's conviction and dismissed the indictment on the grounds that it was defective and that it did not sufficiently allege authority for the Congressional Committee's inquiry.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

"The Worker" issue of May 22, 1962, page 5, column 1 - 4, carried an article entitled "Pete Seeger Wins Reversal" concerning the United States Circuit Court of Appeals reversal of SEEGER's conviction on contempt of Congress charges.

"The Worker" is an east coast Communist newspaper.

AUSA IRVING YOUNGER advised SA FREDERICK H. STEVENS on May 31, 1962, that, during the week prior to the reversal of SEEGER's conviction and the dismissal of indictment, he, Mr. YOUNGER, was in Washington, D. C., when the Supreme Court reversed the indictments in other contempt cases such as SEEGER's. Mr. YOUNGER stated that this made all such indictments invalid and that, even if the Government had won in the Court of Appeals, the Government would have had to confess error in SEEGER's indictment and dismiss it. Mr. YOUNGER advised that the Government has a little over a year in which to reindict and that the Department is deciding whether or not to pursue all the reindictments. Mr. YOUNGER stated that he did not know when the decision will be made.

On March 27, 1963, AUSA AUTHUR ROSETT advised that there has been no change in the status of the subject's case.

On April 3, 1964, JACK W. BALLEEN, AUSA, SDNY, New York, New York, advised SA ROBERT E. BOWE that the case against the subject is closed based on the reversal of the subject's conviction and dismissal of the indictment as set forth above.

Bill of Rights (CCDBR)

A characterization of the CCDBR is contained in the Appendix attached hereto.

On June 10, 1963, NY T-5 advised that the subject's name was in the possession of the CCDBR in June, 1963.

"Mainstream"

A characterization of "Mainstream" is contained in the Appendix attached hereto.

PETER SEEGER was author of an article on WOODIE GUTHRIE, American folk singer, who is incurably ill, which appeared in the August, 1963 edition of "Mainstream", Volume 16, Number 8.

N.Y. The June 19, 1959 issue of the "Daily Worker", Section 2, Pages 3 - 12, carried an article entitled "My Constitution and Me" by WOODIE GUTHRIE. This article was described as a "true short story". In this article, GUTHRIE stated, "The best thing I did in 1936 was to sign up with the Communist Party and start turning open the pages of some thick books. I bought and gave away about a dozen of those little blue USSR Constitution books since 1936."

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast daily Communist newspaper, which ceased publication on January 13, 1958.

Evidence of Communist Party (CP) Sympathy

An article in the "Honolulu Star-Bulletin", daily newspaper of Honolulu, on August 21, 1963, in writing of SEEGER's visit, pointed out that LARRY COTT, Executive Vice President of Imua, an avowedly anti-Communist organization, on two separate occasions had criticized SEEGER as being "active in the functions of the CP since 1940" and said SEEGER "transmits the Communist Party line by way of his folk music". The article stated that SEEGER would neither confirm nor deny the charges and stated "but my religion and my politics are my own affair I refuse to be more specific than that."

On September 4, 1963, LARRY COTT, of Imua, reported that both of SEEGER's adult concerts at the University of Hawaii had been sellouts. SEEGER had also given a matinee at the University of Hawaii for children. COTT stated that at Saturday's program of August 24, 1963, SEEGER had sung a song which he described as recently copyrighted "folk" song by an anonymous friend in Berkeley. COTT stated that in reality the song was written by a publicly identified former Communist, MALVINA REYNOLDS, whose 1954 book of folk songs, many following the Communist line, had carried an introduction by SEEGER. COTT related that the REYNOLDS song, in his opinion, was low keyed propaganda to the effect that America is a land of conformity. SEEGER, according to COTT, also sang a piece from Japan about nuclear bombs; a song on American schools as institutions of indoctrination; and, as a finale, his own copyrighted song, "Where Have All the Flowers Gone," according to COTT, inspired by a passage from the Soviet writer, MIKHAIL SHOLOKOW's "And Quiet Flows the Don".

On August 26, 1963, NY T-7 reported that on the afternoon of August 23, 1963, PETE SEEGER had given an unannounced concert at the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union (ILWU) Memorial Hall at Honolulu. Several of the officials of the ILWU had been in attendance. Before SEEGER started to sing, he had acknowledged AH QUON MC ELRATH in the audience, indicating that they were personal friends. NY T-7 related that no charge had been made for the concert, and only about fifty persons were in attendance. At the conclusion of the performance, a collection had been taken for the purpose of buying leis for participants in the coming March on Washington.

On November 10, 1953, ROBERT MC BURNEY KEMPA, a former member of the CP in Honolulu from January, 1947, to June, 1953, identified AH QUON MC ELRATH as a member of the CP in 1947, 1949, and 1951.

On August 27, 1963, Mrs. ANNALIE TAPIBOUET, Royal Grove Hotel, 161 Ulunui, reported that PETE SEEGER and his family had stayed at the hotel from August 20 to August 25, 1963, when they departed Honolulu for the Orient on a world tour. Mrs. TAPIBOUET stated that SEEGER's reservations had been made at the hotel by JOHN KELLY, JR. Mrs. TAPIBOUET stated that she did recall that shortly after SEEGER had arrived, he had telephoned to ROBERT MC ELRATH of the ILWU, but she had not observed any other pertinent contacts on the part of SEEGER.

On November 10, 1963, ROBERT MC BURNEY KEMPA identified ROBERT MC ELRATH as having been a CP member in 1948.

The January 17, 1964, edition of "L'Unita", an organ of the CP of Italy, contained a report on the appearance of the subject at the Teatro Olimpico, Rome, Italy, on January 17, 1964.

Miscellaneous

The April 16, 1963 edition of "The Worker" contained an article which reflected that the subject was being "blacklisted" by the American Broadcasting Company (ABC) Television Show "Hootenanny", scheduled to debut on April 6, 1963, for refusing to sign the "regular television Loyalty Oath". This article described the "Television Loyalty Oath" as an anti-Communist loyalty oath, and further stated that "the anti-Communist loyalty oath," questioning of performers and blacklisting those who dare to uphold their liberties as guaranteed by the Bill of Rights, is based on the old Mc Carthy Dodge of ferreting out "Communists" among folk singers.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

This article in "The Worker" also contained a box listing the names and addresses to whom protests should be directed concerning the blacklisting of the subject from television show "Hootenanny".

8 The September 6, 1963 edition of "The New York Times", a New York daily newspaper, contained an article captioned, "SEGER Baps Oath for TV Hootenanny." This article reflected that "Pete Seeger, the folk singer, said yesterday he had refused to sign a 'loyalty oath affidavit' as a prerequisite to being considered for an appearance on 'Hootenanny' over the American Broadcasting Company television network. The statement was issued by his manager, Harold Leventhal.

"A. B. C. confirmed that it had sent word to the singer it would 'consider' using him on the show if he furnished a 'sworn affidavit as to his past and present affiliations.' After learning of Mr. Seeger's stand yesterday, A. B. C. said the singer would not be considered for an appearance.

"Mr. Leventhal said it was apparent that A. B. C. was continuing a blacklisting policy against Mr. Seeger and others.

"In 1955 Mr. Seeger appeared before a subcommittee of the House Committee on Un-American Activities and refused to answer questions on Communist infiltration in the field of entertainment. Later he was convicted of contempt of Congress, but the United States Court of Appeals reversed the decision on May 18, 1962, and the indictment was ordered dismissed."

Negative Informants Contacted

On May 27, 1953, a source advised that Camp Unity has been controlled by the Communist Party (CP) since its inception in 1929 or 1930.

On April 24, 1956, a second source furnished an undated flyer entitled "The Wingdaler" published by Wingdale On The Lake. This flyer reflected that Wingdale On The Lake occupied the same site as was formerly occupied by Camp Unity.

On June 7, 1956, Mr. JAMES J. DWYER, Office of the Secretary of State, New York State, reviewed his records and advised SA JOHN EUGENE PARSONS that Wingdale Camp, Inc. filed a certificate of Incorporation number 6036 with his department on February 9, 1956.

On April 27, 1956, a third source advised that regardless of the name it uses the camp is always referred to as Camp Unity by the CP and that captioned organization was and still is a joint operation of the National Office of the CP and the New York State CP.

On November 13, 1962, the third source above advised that the CP has taken complete control of the camp and the camp will be essentially a youth camp in the future.

The "National Guardian" December 6, 1962, contained an advertisement on page 10 entitled "Announcing Camp Webatuck."

The advertisement reflected that the camp, located at Lake Ellis, Wingdale, New York, is a camp for boys and girls from 7 to 16 plus.

The advertisement indicated that registrations for the camp could be made at its office, 505 Fifth Avenue, Suite 705, New York 17, New York, telephone number MU 7-0586.

On December 7, 1962, a suitable pretext call was placed to telephone number MU 7-0586.

CHICAGO COMMITTEE TO DEFEND THE BILL OF RIGHTS

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The Chicago Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights (CCDBR) maintains headquarters in Suite 424, 431 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois.

A source advised in July, 1960, that RICHARD CRILEY, a member of the Civil Liberties Commission, Communist Party (CP) of Illinois, met with key leaders of the CP of Illinois and discussed with them the fact that the climate in the United States on civil liberties and civil rights issues had changed to the extent that it was now possible to proceed to form a new organization with broad mass support. By doing so, CRILEY believed that people who would not associate themselves with an organization of narrow scope would join a civil liberties and civil rights organization built around a broader issue such as the abolishment of the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA). The CP leaders, after receiving assurance from CRILEY that any new organization that might evolve would protect the Party interests, authorized CRILEY to proceed with his plan to form a broader organization.

A second source advised on October 31, 1960, that a new organization known as the Chicago Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights was formally launched in Chicago at a meeting on October 26, 1960. The stated primary purpose of the new organization was to seek the abolition of the HCUA, and RICHARD CRILEY was named as its Executive Secretary, after having been the guiding force in arranging the October 26, 1960, meeting.

The first source, in October, 1960, advised that CRILEY again attended a meeting of the Illinois District CP leadership on October 28, 1960, at which time he reported organizational meeting of the CCDBR. CRILEY stated that the immediate purpose of his organization is to obtain mass support to abolish the HCUA, but the new Committee purposes will also include defense of Smith Act and Taft-Hartley victims. He said there will be no formal affiliation with any national organization of similar purpose; however, the CCDBR, according to CRILEY, will consult and have liaison with national organizations having the same purpose. According to the source, the CP leadership agreed with the general direction of the CCDBR as outlined by CRILEY.

A third source advised on May 3, 1962, that the CCDBR continues to adhere to the same aims and purposes and operates under the same leadership.

TRANSLATION FROM ITALIAN

From "L'Unita" (Unity), January 17, 1964, issue.

A Successful Appearance at the Teatro Olimpico

THE AUDIENCE SANG WITH PETE SEEGER

And now Pete Seeger is on the stage. He is dressed very unpretentiously: a big sweater and light-colored pants. In his attitude toward the audience, one feels the spirit, the ideas, the motives that give life to his surprising and stirring songs. As a matter of fact, his performance is a continuous, cordial and affectionate conversation with the audience - an exchange of ideas with the crowd.

If he could do it, Seeger would ~~step~~ step down, onto the orchestra floor, and shake hands with each and every person in attendance. If all the audience could get up onto the stage, and if the stage had room for all of them, Pete Seeger would be a happy man. Nothing like this happens; however, the audience becomes active, exactly as Brecht wants it to, plays its own role and joins Seeger in his singing.

This is the warm, fraternal climate which became the hallmark of last night's performance at the Teatro Olimpico where the New York minstrel sang, together with his listeners, many of his songs and many more by his "Negro and white friends." It should be pointed out that the most active participants from the audience were young Englishmen and Americans of whom there was quite an abundant representation undeterred by the fact that Seeger is known to reveal scorching truths and atrocious facts about the circumstances in his great country.

The songs he sang were some of his most beautiful and expressive songs. Their lively lyrics are often given an extra dash of color by curious onomatopoeias. His banjo and 12-string guitar give forth sweet notes and his music always presents a clear and straight-line structure which tempers the diverse modes of jazz music and of the folk music that the Negroes (first as slaves and, then, as free men) and the whites of different European origins handed down from generation to generation. His music follows a simple harmonic design, but it is full of suggestions and touching expressions especially when it conveys images of suffering men longing for a true and authentic freedom.

As an outstanding example of his songs, we point out a sorrowful Negro chant which gives a full measure of the sadness and grief of Negro slave women who must sing lullabies to and rock the cradles of white babies while their own children are left unattended in their miserable huts. One of the songs of greatest social significance narrates the story of powerful machines flattening mountains and hills in rich California in order to make it possible to build projects after projects of houses which are all alike, where men live who are all alike, where children are reared. It is a world of boxes whose greatest aspiration is to remain the same.

Another "hot" number is a song about a famous character named Leadbelly who was chased from a hotel where he had gone to participate in a solidarity meeting between colored and white people. This man set to music a short story where a "beautiful and bourgeois" city is described. In this city, a certain couple is unable to find hospitality anywhere and is rudely rejected by everybody. The song which climaxed Seeger's most successful evening is titled "We Shall Overcome" and can be described as the anthem of the Negroes and of the American freedom-fighters. It was received with warm and prolonged applause.

There will be another performance tonight, Seeger's second and last appearance.
