Dear President Clinton,

We are honored to have the opportunity to recommend the Honorable W. Craig Broadwater for the position of United States District Judge, Northern District in West Virginia. With his distinguished record and credentials, we believe Judge Broadwater is highly qualified for this important Federal judicial post.

Since 1983, Craig Broadwater has served on the First Judicial Circuit of West Virginia. He is Chief Judge currently, and was twice rated "Number One Judge" by the West Virginia State Bar.

He has an impressive career that includes key judicial positions, several years as a special prosecuting attorney, and other legal work in private practice, and for State government.

Judge Broadwater is also known for his special commitment to children and families -- through his persistent efforts to combat child abuse and domestic violence. As you know, this is an area that truly challenges law enforcement, and the judiciary, and West Virginia is fortunate to have someone of Judge Broadwater's caliber to make this a priority.

This is an individual who has served his country through distinguished military service, and he is now part of the Reserve Duty for the West Virginia Army National Guard. He has been awarded various medals and honors for his military service.

We are both privileged to submit this recommendation of Judge Broadwater. This is a West Virginian who has made extensive contributions to the legal profession, in his civic and community life, and through military service. We truly believe he will make a superior United States District Judge, and we look forward to this next stage of his career, and service, to the country and our State.

The Honorable William Clinton
