Acceptance of what has happened is the first step to overcoming the consequences of any misfortune. -- William James

The art of becoming wise is the art of knowing what to overlook. -- William James

When you have completed 95% of your journey you are halfway there. -- Japanese Proverb

I wish it were possible to obtain a single amendment to our Constitution. I would be willing to depend on that alone for the reduction of the administration of our government; I mean an additional article taking from the Federal Government the power of borrowing. I now deny their power of making paper money or anything else a legal tender. I know that to pay all proper expenses within the year would, in case of war, be hard on us. But not so hard as ten wars instead of one. For wars could be reduced in that proportion; besides that the State governments would be free to lend their credit in borrowing quotas. --Thomas Jefferson

I place economy among the first and important virtues, and public debt as the greatest of dangers. To preserve our independence, we must not let our rulers load us with perpetual debt. We must make our choice between economy and liberty, or profusion and servitude. If we can prevent the government from wasting the labors of the people under the pretense of caring for them, they will be happy. --Thomas Jefferson

Shake off all the fears of servile prejudices, under which weak minds are servility crouched. Fix reason firmly in her seat, and call on her tribunal for every fact, every opinion. Question with boldness even the existence of a God; because, if there be one, he must more approve of the homage of reason than that of blindfolded fear. --Thomas Jefferson

A wise and frugal government, which shall restrain men from injuring one another, which shall leave them otherwise free to regulate their own pursuits of industry and improvement, and shall not take from the mouth of labor the bread it has earned. This is the sum of good government, and this is necessary to close the circle of our felicity. --Thomas Jefferson

I never submitted the whole system of my opinions to the creed of any party of men whatever, in religion, in philosophy, in politics or in anything else, where I was capable of thinking for myself. Such an addiction is the last degradation of a free and moral agent. If I could not go to Heaven but with a party, I would not go there at all. --Thomas Jefferson

We hold these truths to be sacred and undeniable; that all men are created equal and independent, that from that equal creation they derive rights inherent and inalienable, among which are the preservation of life, and liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. -- Thomas Jefferson

Edu. Above all things I hope the education of the common people will be attended to, convinced that on their good sense we may rely with the most security for the preservation of a due degree of liberty. --Thomas Jefferson

Edu. If the children are untaught, their ignorance and vices will in future life cost us much dearer in their consequences than it would have done in their correction by a good education. --Thomas Jefferson

I sincerely believe... that the principle of spending money to be paid by posterity under the name of funding is but swindling futurity on a large scale. --Thomas Jefferson

It is incumbent on every generation to pay its own debts as it goes. A principle which if acted on would save one-half the wars of the world. --Thomas Jefferson

I think we have more machinery of government than is necessary, to many parasites living on the labor of the industrious. -- Thomas Jefferson

Nothing gives one person so much advantage over another as to remain always cool and unruffled under all circumstances. -- Thomas Jefferson

A little rebellion now and then is a good thing, and as necessary in the political world as storms in the physical. -- Thomas Jefferson

The man who reads nothing at all is better educated than the man who reads nothing but newspapers. --Thomas Jefferson

The spirit of resistance to government is so valuable on certain occasions that I wish it to be always kept alive. --Thomas Jefferson

That government is best which governs the least, because its people discipline themselves. --Thomas Jefferson

I am a great believer in luck, and I find that the harder I work, the more I have of it. --Thomas Jefferson

When angry, count to ten before you speak. If very angry, a hundred. --Thomas Jefferson

Only aim to do your duty, and mankind will give you credit where you fail. --Thomas Jefferson

Honesty is the first chapter in the book of wisdom. --Thomas Jefferson

Be polite to all, but intimate with few. --Thomas Jefferson

I cannot live without books. --Thomas Jefferson

It is always the best policy to tell the truth, unless, of course, you are an exceptionally good liar. -- Jerome K. Jerome

Nothing will ever be attempted if all possible objections must first be overcome. -- Samuel Johnson

The quickest and shortest way to crush whatever laurels you have won is for you to rest on them. -- Donald P. Jones

Wad. The man who gets the most satisfactory results is not always the man with the most brilliant single mind, but rather the man who can best coordinate the brains and talents of his associates. -- W. Alton Jones

Take your life in your own hands and what happens? A terrible thing: no one to blame. -- Erica Jong

Advice is what we ask for when we already know the answer but wish we didn't. -- Erica Jong

K

Failure is only postponed success as long as courage "coaches" ambition. The habit of persistence is the habit of victory. -- Herbert Kaufman

~~Yesterday's the past, tomorrow's the future, but today is a gift. That's why it's called the present.~~ -- Bil Keane

I would sooner fail than not be among the greatest. -- John Keats

55 I am only one; but still I am one. I cannot do everything, but still I can do something; I will not refuse to do the something I can do. -- Helen Keller

Life is either a daring adventure or nothing. Security is mostly a superstition. It does not exist in nature. -- Helen Keller

55 The only place success comes before work is in the dictionary. -- Donald Kendall

55 Our progress as a nation can be no swifter than our progress in education. -- John F. Kennedy

55 Wash. Washington [D.C.] is a city of Southern efficiency and Northern charm. -- John F. Kennedy

Forgive your enemies, but never forget their names. -- John F. Kennedy

It's better to be boldly decisive and risk being wrong than to agonize at length and be right too late. -- Marilyn Moats Kennedy

55 Each time a person stands up for an ideal, or acts to improve the lot of others, or strikes out against injustice, he sends forth a tiny ripple of hope, and crossing each other from a million different centers of energy and daring, these ripples build a current that can sweep down the mightiest walls of oppression and resistance. -- Robert F. Kennedy

55 Only those who dare to fail greatly can ever achieve greatly. -- Robert F. Kennedy

You will never stub your toe standing still. The faster you go, the more chance there is of stubbing your toe, but the more chance you have of getting somewhere. -- Charles Kettering

An inventor fails 999 times, and if he succeeds once, he's in. He treats his failures simply as practice shots. -- Charles Kettering

The only difference between a problem and a solution is that people understand the solution. -- Charles Kettering

People are very open-minded about new things--as long as they're exactly like the old ones. -- Charles Kettering

It's amazing what ordinary people can do if they set out without preconceived notions. -- Charles Kettering

In the long run we are all dead. -- John Maynard Keynes

Rarely do we find men who willingly to engage in hard, solid thinking. There is an almost universal quest for easy answers and half-baked solutions. Nothing pains some people more than having to think. -- Martin L. King, Jr.

g If a man hasn't discovered something he will die for, he isn't fit to live. -- Martin Luther King Jr.

Freedom from the desire for an answer is essential to the understanding of a problem. -- J. Krishnamurti

People need religion. It's a vehicle for a moral tradition. A crucial role. Nothing can take its place. -- Irving Kristol

You're only as good as the people you hire. -- Ray Kroc

Getting ideas is like shaving: if you don't do it every day, you're a bum. -- Alex Kroll

Call it what you will, incentives are what get people to work harder. --Nikita Krushchev

L

Neither genius, fame, nor love show the greatness of the soul. Only kindness can do that. --Jean Baptiste Henri Lacordaire

Class has a sense of humor. It knows that a good laugh is the best lubricant for oiling the machinery of human relations. Class never makes excuses. It takes its lumps and learns from past mistakes. Class bespeaks an aristocracy unrelated to ancestors or money. Some extremely wealthy people have no class at all, while others who are struggling to make ends meet are loaded with it. Class is real. You can't fake it. Class never tries to build itself up by tearing others down. Class is already up and need not attempt to look better by making others look worse. Everyone is comfortable with the person who has class because he is comfortable with himself. If you have class, you've got it made. If you don't have class, no matter what else you have, it won't make up for it. -- Ann Landers

We promise according to our hopes, and perform according to our fears. -- La Rochefourauld

Some of the world's greatest feats were accomplished by people not smart enough to know they were impossible. -- Doug Larson

People don't ask for facts in making up their minds. They would rather have one good, soul-satisfying emotion than a dozen facts. -- Robert Keith Leavitt

It is well that war is so terrible, or we should get too fond of it. -- Robert E. Lee

Lead us not into temptation. Just tell us where it is; we'll find it. -- Sam Levenson

If you were going to die soon and had only one phone call you could make, who would you call and what would you say? And why are you waiting? -- Stephen Levine

If you want truly to understand something, try to change it. -- Kurt Lewin

Any coward can sit in his home and criticize a pilot for flying into a mountain in a fog. But I would rather, by far, die on a mountainside than in bed. What kind of man would live where there is no daring? And is life so dear that we should blame men for dying in adventure? Is there a better way to die? -- Charles Lindbergh Jr.

The Bible is not my book, and Christianity is not my religion. I could never give assent to the long, complicated statements of Christian dogma. -- Abraham Lincoln

You can fool all the people some of the time, and some of the people all the time, but you cannot fool all the people all the time. -- Abraham Lincoln

My great concern is not whether you have failed, but whether you are content with your failure. -- Abraham Lincoln

Nearly all men can stand adversity, but if you want to test a man's character, give him power. -- Abraham Lincoln

Better to remain silent and be thought a fool than to speak out and remove all doubt. -- Abraham Lincoln

SUC * Things may come to those who wait, but only the things left by those who hustle. -- Abraham Lincoln

Most people are about as happy as they make up their minds to be. -- Abraham Lincoln

Tact is the ability to describe others as they see themselves. -- Abraham Lincoln

SUC * He has the right to criticize who has the heart to help. -- Abraham Lincoln

I destroy my enemy when I make him my friend. -- Abraham Lincoln

While one person hesitates because he feels inferior, the other is busy making mistakes and becoming superior. -- Henry C. Link

New opinions are always suspected, and usually opposed, without any other reason but because they are not already common. -- John Locke

SUC * The difference between a successful person and others is not a lack of strength, not a lack of knowledge, but rather a lack of will. -- Vince Lombardi

The quality of a person's life is in direct proportion to their commitment to excellence, regardless of their chosen field of endeavor. -- Vince Lombardi

Winning is a habit. Unfortunately, so is losing. -- Vince Lombardi

Being intelligent is not a felony, but most societies evaluate it as at least a misdemeanor. -- Lazarus Long

Great is the art of beginning, but greater is the art of ending. -- Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

Business more than any other occupation is a continual dealing with the future; it is a continual calculation, an instinctive exercise in foresight. -- Henry R. Luce

There are four things that hold back human progress. Ignorance, stupidity, committees and accountants. -- Charles J.C. Lyall

M

Don't be afraid of opposition. Remember, a kite rises against, not with, the wind. -- Hamilton Mabie

There is no security on this earth. Only opportunity. -- General Douglas MacArthur

In war there is no substitute for victory. -- General Douglas MacArthur

Happiness is not so much in having as sharing. We make a living by what we get, but we make a life by what we give. -- Norman MacEwan

It is much more secure to be feared than to be loved. -- Niccolo Machiavelli

It isn't the people you fire who make your life miserable, it's the people you don't. -- Harvey Mackay

You can tell whether a man is clever by his answers. You can tell whether a man is wise by his questions. -- Naguib Mahfouz

Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world. -- Nelson Mandela

Beginning today, treat everyone you meet as if they were going to be dead by midnight. Extend to them all the care, kindness, and understanding you can muster, and do it with no thought of any reward. Your life will never be the same again. -- Og Mandino

The ultimate leader is one who is willing to develop people to the point that they surpass him or her in knowledge and ability. -- Fred A. Manske, Jr.

We win half the battle when we make up our minds to take the world as we find it, including the thorns. -- Orison S. Marden

A man must be big enough to admit his mistakes, smart enough to profit from them, and strong enough to correct them. -- John C. Maxwell

A good leader is a person who takes a little more than his share of the blame and a little less than his share of the credit. -- John C. Maxwell

Good executives never put off until tomorrow what they can get someone else to do today. -- John C.

Maxwell

A big man is one who makes us feel bigger when we are with him. -- John C. Maxwell

People buy into the leader before they buy into the vision. -- John C. Maxwell

Learn to say "no" to the good so you can say "yes" to the best. -- John C. Maxwell

Leadership is influence. -- John C. Maxwell

The relationship between commitment and doubt is by no means an antagonistic one. Commitment is healthiest when it not without doubt but in spite of doubt. -- Rollo May

Always question. Always analyze. But in the end, suspend judgment until you've been there. Live it to learn it. -- Mark McClinchie

The Lord's Prayer is 66 words, the Gettysburg Address is 286 words, and there are 1,322 words in the Declaration of Independence. Yet, government regulations on the sale of cabbage total 26,911 words. -- David McIntosh

Yes, risk-taking is inherently failure-prone. Otherwise, it would be called sure-thing taking. -- Tim McMahon

SUC · Every society honors its live conformists and its dead troublemakers. -- Mignon McLaughlin

If, after I depart this vale, you ever remember me and have thought to please my ghost, forgive some sinner and wink your eye at some homely girl. -- H.L. Mencken

The older I grow the more I distrust the familiar doctrine that age brings wisdom. -- H. L. Mencken

No one ever went broke underestimating the taste of the American public. -- H. L. Mencken

Lord, grant that I may always desire more than I can accomplish. -- Michelangelo

Character consists of what you do on the third and fourth tries. -- James A. Michener

The disappearance of a sense of responsibility is the most far-reaching consequence of submission to authority. -- Stanley Milgram

The road to success is always under construction. -- Jim Miller

The greatest motivational act one person can do for another is to listen. -- Roy E. Moody

To know one thing, you must know the opposite. -- Henry Moore

Evil will always triumph, because good is dumb. -- Rick Moranis

Somehow liberals have been unable to acquire from birth what conservatives seem to be endowed with at birth: namely, a healthy skepticism of the powers of government to do good. -- Daniel Moynihan

The issue of race could benefit from a period of benign neglect. -- Daniel Moynihan

Freedom is being able to live with the consequences of your decisions. -- James X. Mullen

N

I start with the premise that the function of leadership is to produce more leaders, not more followers. -- Ralph Nader

The genius of you Americans is that you never make clear-cut stupid moves, only complicated stupid moves which make us wonder at the possibility that there may be something to them which we are missing. -- Gamel Nasser

Of those who say nothing, few are silent. -- Thomas Neill

~~Nobody believes the official spokesman, but everybody trusts an unidentified source.~~ -- Ron Nesen

~~God, give us grace to accept with serenity the things that cannot be changed, courage to change the things which should be changed, and the wisdom to distinguish the one from the other.~~ -- Reinhold Niebuhr

On the mountains of truth you can never climb in vain: either you will reach a point higher up today, or you will be training your powers so that you will be able to climb higher tomorrow. --Friedrich Nietzsche

The doer alone learneth. -- Friedrich Nietzsche

A ship is always referred to as "she" because it costs so much to keep one in paint and powder. -- Chester Nimitz

Greetings, I am pleased to see that we are different. May we together become greater than the sum of both of us. -- Leonard Nimoy

Politics would be a helluva good business if it weren't for the goddamned people. --Richard M. Nixon

I would have made a good pope. -- Richard Nixon

Suc. If I have a thousand ideas and only one turns out to be good, I am satisfied. -- Alfred Nobel

O

Remember the two benefits of failure. First, if you do fail, you learn what doesn't work; and second, the failure gives you the opportunity to try a new approach. -- Roger von Oech

Illegal aliens have always been a problem in the United States. Ask any Indian. -- Robert Orben

The preamble to the Constitution states: "We, the People of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquillity, provide for the common defence, promote the general welfare..." It doesn't say "guarantee the general welfare." And it certainly doesn't say "give welfare benefits to all the people in the country who aren't doing so well even if the reason they aren't doing so well is because they're sitting on their butts in front of the TV. -- P.J. O'Rourke

Making fun of born-again Christians is like hunting dairy cows with a high powered rifle and scope. -- P.J. O'Rourke

A little Government and a little luck are necessary in life; but only a fool trusts either of them. -- P.J. O'Rourke

Always read stuff that will make you look good if you die in the middle of it. -- P. J. O'Rourke

Watch your thoughts; they become words. Watch your words; they become actions. Watch your actions; they become habits. Watch your habits; they become character. Watch your character; it becomes your destiny. --Frank Outlaw

When we walk to the edge of all the light we have and take the step into the darkness of the unknown, we must believe that one of two things will happen. There will be something solid for us to stand on or we will be taught to fly. --Patrick Overton

P

Character is much easier kept than recovered. -- Thomas Paine

The cure for boredom is curiosity. There is no cure for curiosity. -- Ellen Parr

It is the fight alone that pleases us, not the victory. -- Blaise Pascal

Let me tell you the secret that has led me to my goal: my strength lies solely in my tenacity. -- Louis Pasteur

Never tell people how to do things. Tell them what to do and they will surprise you with their ingenuity. -- General George S. Patton

Watch what people are cynical about, and one can often discover what they lack. -- General George S. Patton

Do your damndest in an ostentatious manner all the time. -- General George S. Patton

Success is how high you bounce when you hit bottom. -- General George S. Patton

Lead me, follow me, or get out of my way. -- General George S. Patton

- I'd like to welcome all of you to Washington. It is good to see so many friends here (Lynn Lyss, Pris Siskin, Steve Grossman, DNC Chair and federation leader from Massachusetts, Alan Solomont).
- I know that the primary goal of your mission here has been to discuss the important domestic issues that confront your communities across the country and I applaud your tireless efforts to provide services to families in need, children, the elderly and disabled.
- You have been strong advocates of the need to promote and strengthen cooperation between charitable organizations and the federal government.
- As we begin to prepare for the "Presidents' Summit on America's Future" in Philadelphia in just a couple of weeks, I want you to know that the President and I are aware of the unfortunate conflict between the timing of the Summit and the last two days of Passover. It is particularly unfortunate because we all know how important the concepts of community service and civic involvement are to the American Jewish community: they are at the very center of your traditions.
- One of the great strengths that has enabled your community to endure great hardship, overcome enormous obstacles and flourish throughout the world has been your deep concern for the well-being of others-- not just within your own community-- but for the larger community as well.
- As you prepare to re-tell the Passover story, I am reminded of a phrase in the very beginning of the Hagaddah [HA-GA-DAH]. "Let all who hunger, eat with us; let all who are in need, share the Passover meal." For thousand of years, you have served as an example to others of the importance of being our "brothers' keepers." As you gather with family and friends at the Seder [SAY-DER], you recommit yourselves to maintaining that vital link with generations past and fulfilling that responsibility to generations yet to come.
- Thank you and Hag Sameach! [HAG SA-MAY-UCH]

I wanted a perfect ending. Now I've learned, the hard way, that some poems don't rhyme, and some stories don't have a clear beginning, middle, and end. Life is about not knowing, having to change, taking the moment and making the best of it, without knowing what's going to happen next. Delicious Ambiguity. -- Gilda Radner

America's abundance was not created by public sacrifices to "the common good," but by the productive genius of free men who pursued their own personal interests and the making of their own private fortunes. -- Ayn Rand

The idea that 'the public interest' supersedes private interests and rights can have but one meaning: that the interests and rights of some individuals take precedence over the interests and rights of others. -- Ayn Rand

It is not the critic who counts, nor the person who points out how the strong person stumbled or where the doer of deeds could have done better. The credit belongs to the person who is actually in the arena; whose face is actually marred by dust and sweat and blood, who strives valiantly, who errs and comes short again and again, who knows great enthusiasms and great devotions, whose life is spent in a worthy cause; who, at best, knows in the end the triumph of high achievement and at worst, if failure wins out, it at least wins with greatness, so that this person's place shall never be with those timid souls who know neither victory nor defeat. -- Theodore Roosevelt

The best executive is the one who has sense enough to pick good men to do what he wants done, and self-restraint enough to keep from meddling with them while they do it. -- Theodore Roosevelt

Brevity is the soul of wit. -- William Shakespeare

If you have an apple and I have an apple and we exchange these apples then you and I will still each have one apple. But if you have an idea and I have an idea and we exchange these ideas, then each of us will

People who soar are those who refuse to sit back, sigh and wish things would change. They neither complain of their lot nor passively dream of some distant ship coming in. Rather, they visualize in their minds that they are not quitters; they will not allow life's circumstances to push them down and hold them under. -- Charles Swindoll

The remarkable thing we have is a choice every day regarding the attitude we will embrace for that day. We cannot change our past... We cannot change the fact that people will act in a certain way. We cannot change the inevitable. The only thing we can do is play on the one string we have, and that is our attitude. -- Charles Swindoll

I cannot even imagine where I would be today were it not for that handful of friends who have given me a heart full of joy. Let's face it, friends make life a lot more fun. -- Charles R. Swindoll

It is amazing how much people can get done if they do not worry about who gets the credit. -- Sandra Swinney

It is a bad plan that admits of no modification. -- Publius Syrus

Discovery is seeing what everybody else has seen, and thinking what nobody else has thought. -- Albert Szent-Gyorgi

T

If you judge people, you have no time to love them. -- Mother Teresa

~~Standing in the middle of the road is very dangerous; you get knocked down by traffic from both sides.~~ -- Margaret Thatcher

Being in power is like being a lady. If you have to tell people you are, you aren't. -- Margaret Thatcher

Nobody in football should be called a genius. A genius is a guy like Norman Einstein. -- Joe Theismann

Government cannot make us equal; it can only recognize, respect, and protect us as equal before the law. -- Clarence Thomas

I don't believe in quotas. America was founded on a philosophy of individual rights, not group rights. -- Clarence Thomas

That government is best which governs least. -- Henry David Thoreau

It is better to ask some of the questions than to know all the answers. -- James Thurber

Democracy and socialism have nothing in common but one word, equality. But notice the difference: while democracy seeks equality in liberty, socialism seeks equality in restraint and servitude. -- Alexis De Tocqueville

When you get right down to it, one of the most important tasks of a leader is to eliminate his people's excuse for failure. -- Robert Townsend

Lead: I studied the lives of great men and famous women, and I found that the men and women who got to the top were those who did the jobs they had in hand, with everything they had of energy and enthusiasm. -- Henry Truman

I have found the best way to give advice to your children is to find out what they want and then advise them to do it. -- Harry S. Truman

It is amazing what you can accomplish if you do not care who gets the credit. -- Harry S. Truman

Wherever you have an efficient government you have a dictatorship. -- Harry S. Truman

If you can't convince them, confuse them. -- Harry S. Truman

No matter how far you have gone on the wrong road, turn back. -- Turkish proverb

I like thinking big. If you're going to be thinking anything, you might as well think big. -- Donald Trump

The greatest of all faults is to be conscious of none. Recognizing our limitations and imperfections is the first requisite of progress. Those who believe they have "arrived" believe they have nowhere to go. Some not only have closed their minds to new truth, but they sit on the lid. -- Dale Turner

When I was a boy of 14 my father was so ignorant I could hardly stand to have the old man around. But when I got to be twenty-one, I was astonished at how much the old man had learnt in seven years. -- Mark Twain

Always acknowledge a fault. This will throw those in authority off their guard and give you an opportunity to commit more. -- Mark Twain

Reader, suppose you were an idiot. And suppose you were a member of Congress. But I repeat myself. -- Mark Twain

Don't go around saying the world owes you a living. The world owes you nothing. It was here first. -- Mark Twain

It is good sportsmanship to not pick up lost golf balls while they are still rolling. -- Mark Twain

Let us be thankful for the fools. But for them the rest of us could not succeed. -- Mark Twain

Clothes make the man. Naked people have little or no influence on society. -- Mark Twain

I did not attend his funeral; but I wrote a nice letter saying I approved of it. -- Mark Twain

Loyalty to petrified opinion never yet broke a chain or freed a human soul. -- Mark Twain

Get your facts first, and then you can distort them as much as you please. -- Mark Twain

The human race has one really effective weapon, and that is laughter. -- Mark Twain

Always do right. This will gratify some people and astonish the rest. -- Mark Twain

To succeed in life, you need two things: ignorance and confidence. -- Mark Twain

Courage is resistance to fear, mastery of fear--not absence of fear. -- Mark Twain

I was gratified to be able to answer promptly. I said, I don't know. -- Mark Twain

There is no distinctly American criminal class, except Congress. -- Mark Twain

Truth is our most valuable commodity - let us economize. -- Mark Twain

Go to Heaven for the climate, Hell for the company. -- Mark Twain

Don't let school interfere with your education. -- Mark Twain

Golf is a good walk spoiled. -- Mark Twain

Invincibility lies in the defense; the possibility of victory in the attack. One defends when his strength is inadequate; he attacks when it is abundant. -- Sun Tzu

It is better to be high-spirited even though one makes more mistakes, than to be narrow-minded and all too prudent. -- Vincent van Gogh

Do not quench your inspiration and your imagination; do not become the slave of your model. -- Vincent van Gogh

It is not enough to conquer; one must learn to seduce. -- Voltaire

Doubt is uncomfortable, certainty is ridiculous. -- Voltaire

W

Outstanding leaders go out of their way to boost the self-esteem of their personnel. If people believe in themselves, it's amazing what they can accomplish. -- Sam Walton

High expectations are the key to everything. -- Sam Walton

Character is power. -- Booker T. Washington

Friendship is a plant of slow growth and must undergo and withstand the shocks of adversity before it is entitled to the appellation. -- George Washington

I conceive that a knowledge of books is the basis on which all other knowledge rests. -- George Washington

The greatest part of our happiness depends on our dispositions, not our circumstances. -- Martha Washington

Recently, I was asked if I was going to fire an employee who made a mistake that cost the company $600,000. No, I replied, I just spent $600,000 training him. Why would I want somebody to hire his experience? --Thomas J. Watson

All the problems of the world could be settled easily if men were only willing to think. The trouble is that men very often resort to all sorts of devices in order not to think, because thinking is such hard work. --Thomas J. Watson

Nothing so conclusively proves a man's ability to lead others as what he does from day to day to lead himself. -- Thomas J. Watson

If you want to succeed, double your failure rate. -- Thomas J. Watson

Character is doing what's right when nobody's looking. -- J.C. Watts

It's what you learn after you know it all that counts. -- Earl Weaver

Find out what you like doing best and get someone to pay you for doing it. --Katherine Whitehorn

Everything's in the mind. That's where it all starts. Knowing what you want is the first step toward getting it. -- Mae West

Expecting the world to treat you fairly because you are a good person is a little like expecting the bull not to attack you because you are a vegetarian. -- Dennis Wholey

A visionary is one who can find his way by moonlight, and see the dawn before the rest of the world. -- Oscar Wilde

- ☐ Football is like life -- it requires perserverence, self-denial, hard work, sacrifice, dedication and respect for authority.

Golda Meir

Meir (1898–1978), born in Kiev, Russia, was a founder of the state of Israel and served as its labor minister, foreign minister, and then prime minister from 1969-1974. While in office she strove for diplomatic settlements to arab/israeli conflicts.

- ☐ It's no accident many accuse me of conducting public affairs with my heart instead of my head. Well, what if I do? ... Those who don't know how to weep with their whole heart don't know how to laugh either.
- ☐ You cannot shake hands with a clenched fist.
- ☐ I can honestly say that I was never affected by the question of the success of an undertaking. If I felt it was the right thing to do, I was for it regardless of the possible outcome.
- ☐ Let me tell you something that we Israelis have against Moses. He took us 40 years through the desert in order to bring us to the one spot in the Middle East that has no oil! - New York Times, 6/10/73
- ☐ We do not rejoice in victories. We rejoice when a new kind of cotton is grown and when strawberries bloom in Israel.
- ☐ Old age is like a plane flying through a storm. Once you're aboard ther's nothing you can do.
- ☐ A leader who does not hesitate before he sends his nation into battle is not fit to be a leader.

Norman Vincent Peale

A Methodist minister, Peal, born in Bowersville, Ohio, made effective use of radio, television, and newspapers to promote his ideas and philosophy - perhaps best described in his best known book - The Power of Positive Thinking.

- ☐ Any fact facing us is not as important as our attitude toward it, for that determines our success or failure.
- ☐ The trouble with most of us is that we would rather be ruined by praise than saved by criticism.
- ☐ Getting people to like you is merely the other side of liking them. - from The Power of Positive Thinking
- ☐ There is a real magic in enthusiasm. It spells the difference between mediocrity and accomplishment.
- ☐ Believe you are defeated, believe it long enough, and it is likely to become a fact.

- ☐ If I'd known how much packing I'd have to do, I'd have run again. - on leaving the White House, from Time Magazine, 1/26/53
 - ☐ Any man who has had the job I've had and didn't have a sense of humor wouldn't still be here.
 - ☐ We must have strong minds, ready to accept facts as they are.
 - ☐ Some of the presidents were great and some of them weren't. I can say that, because I wasn't one of the great presidents, but I had a good time trying to be one, I can tell you that.
 - ☐ If you can't convince them, confuse them.
 - ☐ A politician is a man who understands government and it takes a politician to run a government. A statesman is a politician who's been dead for fifteen years.
 - ☐ I have found the best way to give advice to your children is to find out what they want and then advise them to do it.
 - ☐ It's a recession when your neighbor loses his job; it's a depression when you lose your own.
 - ☐ I always remember an epitaph which is in the cemetery at Toombstone, Arizona. It says: "Here lies Jack Williams. He done his damndest." I think that is the greatest epitaph a man can have.

George Washington

Washington (1732-1799), born in Westmoreland County, Virginia, was commander in Chief of American forces during five harsh years of the Revolutionary War, and at times held his troops together with little more than his own willpower. After the war he played a vital roll in presiding over the Constitutional Convention of 1787, and was was elected the first US president in 1789.

- ☐ Associate yourself with men of good quality if you esteem your own reputation, for 'tis better to be alone than in bad company.
 - ☐ Few men have virtue to withstand the highest bidder.
 - ☐ True friendship is a plant of slow growth, and must undergo and withstand the shocks of adversity before it is entitled to the appellation.
 - ☐ To be prepared for war is one of the most effective means of preserving peace.
 - ☐ Over grown military establishments are under any form of government inauspicious to liberty, and are to be regarded as particularly hostile to republican liberty.
 - ☐ Let your heart feel for the afflictions and distress of everyone, and let your hand give in proportion to your purse.

There are only two ways to live your life. One is as though nothing is a miracle. The other is as though everything is a miracle.

--Albert Einstein

One ought, everyday, to hear a song, read a fine poem, and, if possible, to speak a few reasonable words.

--Goethe

What would you attempt to do if you knew you would not fail?

--Dr. Robert Schuller

Everyone has talent. What is rare is the courage to follow that talent to the dark place where it leads.

--Erica Jong

No problem can withstand the assault of sustained thinking.

--Voltaire

To change one's life: 1. Start immediately, 2. Do it flamboyantly, 3. No exceptions.

--William James

If we are not responsible for the thoughts that pass through our doors, we, at least, are responsible for those which we admit and entertain.

--Charles B. Newcomb

You cannot dream yourself into a character; you must hammer and forge yourself one.

--James A. Froude

It is only imperfection that complains of what is imperfect. The more perfect we are, the more gentle and quiet we become towards the defects of others.

--Joseph Addison

Had I to carve an inscription on my tombstone I would ask for none other than "The Individual."

--Soren Kierkegaard

Reputation is in itself only a farthing candle, of a wavering and uncertain flame, and easily blown out, but it is the light by which the world looks for and finds merit.

--James Russell Lowell

A man has to live with himself, and he should see to it that he always has good company.

--Charles Evans Hughes

I am only one, but I am one. I cannot do everything, but I can do something. And I will not let what I cannot do interfere with what I can do.

--Edward Everett Hale

Don't bother just to be better than your contemporaries or predecessors. Try to be better than yourself.

--William Faulkner

For the human mind is seldom at stay: If you do not grow better, you will most undoubtedly grow worse.

--Samuel Richardson

Better keep yourself clean and bright; you are the window through which you must see the world.

--George Bernard Shaw

Tact is the ability to describe others as they see themselves.

--Abraham Lincoln

No life is so hard that you can't make it easier by the way you take it.
--Ellen Glasgow

Nothing in life is to be feared. It is only to be understood.
--Marie Curie

Life is like music; it must be composed by ear, feeling, and instinct, not by rule.
--Samuel Butler

To be interested in the changing seasons is a happier state of mind than to be hopelessly in love with spring.
--George Santayana

It is within the experience of everyone that when pleasure and pain reach a certain intensity they are indistinguishable.

The most important thing about having goals is having one. -- Geoffrey F. Abert

A common mistake that people make when trying to design something completely foolproof is to underestimate the ingenuity of complete fools. -- Douglas Adams

I love deadlines. I like the whooshing sound they make as they fly by. -- Douglas Adams

Facts are stubborn things; and whatever may be our wishes, our inclinations, or the dictates of our passions, they cannot alter the state of facts and evidence. -- John Quincy Adams

I'm slowly becoming a convert to the principle that you can't motivate people to do things, you can only demotivate them. The primary job of the manager is not to empower but to remove obstacles. -- Scott Adams

Set your expectations high; find men and women whose integrity and values you respect; get their agreement on a course of action; and give them your ultimate trust. -- John Akers

A positive attitude may not solve all your problems, but it will annoy enough people to make it worth the effort. -- Herm Albright

If at first you don't succeed, you're running about average. -- M.H. Alderson

I have just returned from Boston. It is the only thing to do if you find yourself up there. -- Fred Allen

Sex without love is an empty experience, but as empty experiences go it's one of the best. -- Woody Allen

Money is better than poverty, if only for financial reasons. -- Woody Allen

If everything's under control, you're going too slow. -- Mario Andretti

Anyone can become angry--that is easy. But to be angry with the right person, to the right degree, at the right time, for the right purpose, and in the right way; this is not easy. -- Aristotle

We are what we repeatedly do. Excellence then, is not an act, but a habit. -- Aristotle

You cannot get ahead while you are getting even. -- Dick Armey

If you think you can, you can. And if you think you can't, you're right. -- Marykay Ash

We ought to do good to others as simply as a horse runs, or a bee makes honey, or a vine bears grapes season after season without thinking of the grapes it has borne. -- Marcus Aurelius

Natural abilities are like natural plants, that need pruning by study; and studies themselves do give forth directions too much at large, except they be bounded in by experience. -- Francis Bacon

Whatever you do, do it with all your might. Work at it, early and late, in season and out of season, not leaving a stone unturned, and never deferring for a single hour that which can be done just as well as now. -- P.T. Barnum

Always be a little kinder than necessary. -- James M. Barrie

Strength is a matter of the made-up mind. -- John Beecher

When one door closes, another opens; but we often look so long and so regretfully upon the closed door that we do not see the onewhich has opened for us. -- Alexander Graham Bell

Anything I've ever done that ultimately was worthwhile... initially scared me to death. -- Betty Bender

Your life is the sum result of all the choices you make, both consciously and unconsciously. If you can control the process of choosing, you can take control of all aspects of your life. You can find the freedom that comes from being in charge of yourself. -- Robert F. Bennett

The most dangerous leadership myth is that leaders are born-that there is a genetic factor to leadership. This myth asserts that people simply either have certain charismatic qualities or not. That's nonsense; in fact, the opposite is true. Leaders are made rather than born. -- Warren G. Bennis

Failing organizations are usually over-managed and under-led. -- Warren G. Bennis

Think like a man of action, act like a man of thought. -- Henri Bergson

Life is 10% what you make it, and 90% how you take it. -- Irving Berlin

History is the version of past events that people have decided to agree upon. -- Napoleon Bonaparte

Ten people who speak make more noise than ten thousand who are silent. -- Napoleon Bonaparte

A man will fight harder for his interests than for his rights. -- Napoleon Bonaparte

In politics stupidity is not a handicap. -- Napoleon Bonaparte

A leader is a dealer in hope. -- Napoleon Bonaparte

The need to be right all the time is the biggest bar to new ideas. It is better to have enough ideas for some of them to be wrong than to be always right by having no ideas at all. -- Edward de Bono

Good government generally begins in the family, and if the moral character of a people once degenerate, their political character must soon follow. -- Elias Boudinot

You can't try to do things; you simply must do them. -- Ray Bradbury

Ours is a world of nuclear giants and ethical infants. If we continue to develop our technology without wisdom or prudence, our servant may prove to be our executioner. -- General Omar Bradley

To be sure of hitting the target, shoot first, and call whatever you hit the target. -- Ashleigh Brilliant

Please don't ask me what the score is, I'm not even sure what the game is. -- Ashleigh Brilliant

I either want less corruption, or more chance to participate in it. -- Ashleigh Brilliant

Do not pray for easy lives. Pray to be stronger men! Do not pray for tasks equal to your powers. Pray for power equal to your tasks. -- Phillips Brooks

Those who have easy, cheerful attitudes tend to be happier than those with less pleasant temperaments, regardless of money, "making it", or success. -- Dr. Joyce Brothers

Act as if it were impossible to fail. -- Dorothea Broude

Education makes people easy to lead, but difficult to drive; easy to govern, but impossible to enslave. -- Henry Brougham

A new idea is delicate. It can be killed by a sneer or a yawn; it can be stabbed to death by a joke or worried to death by a frown on the right person's brow. -- Charles Brower

The next time you face a customer who has every right to be upset, say something like this: 'I don't blame you for feeling as you do. If I were you, I'd feel exactly the same way. What would you like for me to do?' These are magical, healing words, and you'll be surprised at how reasonable people become when they believe you are on their side. -- H. Jackson Brown, Jr.

If you are angry, why not try this. Write a letter. Pour out all of your feelings, describe your anger and disappointment. Don't hold anything back. Then put the letter in a drawer. After two days, take it out and read it. Do you still want to send it? I've found that anger and pie crusts soften after two days. -- H. Jackson Brown, Jr.

When you are angry or frustrated, what comes out? Whatever it is, it's a good indication of what you're made of. -- H. Jackson Brown, Jr.

When you have nothing important or interesting to say, don't let anyone persuade you to say it. -- H. Jackson Brown, Jr.

Find a job you like and you add five days to every week. -- H. Jackson Brown, Jr.

Be smarter than other people, just don't tell them so. -- H. Jackson Brown, Jr.

You either make dust or eat dust. -- H. Jackson Brown, Jr.

Shoot for the moon. Even if you miss it you will land among the stars. -- Les Brown

The way to develop self-confidence is to do the thing you fear and get a record of successful experiences behind you. -- William Jennings Bryan

Destiny is not a matter of chance, it is a matter of choice; it is not a thing to be waited for, it is a thing to be achieved. -- William Jennings Bryan

If anything goes bad, I did it. If anything goes semi-good, we did it. If anything goes really good, then you did it. That's all it takes to get people to win football games for you. -- Paul "Bear" Bryant

The young do not know enough to be prudent, and therefore they attempt the impossible, and achieve it, generation after generation. -- Pearl S. Buck

I mean to live my life an obedient man, but obedient to God, subservient to the wisdom of my ancestors; never to the authority of political truths arrived at yesterday at the voting booth. -- William F. Buckley Jr.

The academic community has in it the biggest concentration of alarmists, cranks and extremists this side of the giggle house. -- William F. Buckley Jr.

There is an inverse relationship between reliance on the state and self-reliance. -- William F. Buckley Jr.

Good order is the foundation of all things. -- Edmund Burke

Aim for success, not perfection. Never give up your right to be wrong, because then you will lose the ability to learn new things and move forward with your life. Remember that fear always lurks behind perfectionism. Confronting your fears and allowing yourself the right to be human can, paradoxically, make yourself a happier and more productive person. -- Dr. David M. Burns

You will never find time for anything. If you want time you must make it. -- Charles Buxton

Those who will not reason, are bigots, those who cannot, are fools, and those who dare not, are slaves. -- Lord Byron

APRIL 9, 1997

- I am delighted to be here for the opening of "The President's Garden"--an exhibit designed to celebrate 200 years in the life of the White House gardens.
- The White House serves as the Presidents' official residence and office, a living museum for the American people. The gardens are an integral part of White House history.
- Presidents and their families have loved these gardens, and my husband and I are no exception. Presidents have entertained in the gardens, walked and talked with their friends, and found joy and solace in the beauty and quiet they provide. President Adams actually tilled the garden's soil, President Jackson's magnolias are still covered with white blossoms each June, and President Kennedy made the Rose Garden into an outdoor meeting place to accommodate a thousand spectators, ~~to name a few.~~
- My husband and I have planted three trees on the White House grounds-- a linden, an American elm, and a willow oak. In planting those trees, we ~~became part of a tradition that links previous residents of this house.~~ Lane In fact, of the 400 trees on the grounds, 32 were planted by presidents and their wives. to continue a tradition inspired by our predecessors + enjoyed by ~~as the millions of visitors who tour the grounds each year.~~

HEADLINE: Officials race to avert more school closures

BYLINE: Maria Koklanaris; THE WASHINGTON TIMES

BODY:

The District expects to spend about $5 million to repair 8,000 new fire-code violations found in the city's 164 public schools over the last six months, school officials said yesterday.

The effort comes 10 months after a judge first ordered D.C. schools to fix fire-code violations, many of which were deemed life-threatening.

School facilities staff and outside contractors so far have corrected nearly 4,000 of the 8,000 violations previously cited by the Fire Department, at a cost of about $2 million, said schools spokeswoman Beverly Lofton said.

Fire inspectors have rechecked 46 of the 164 schools and found them free of violations, Ms. Lofton said.

"As the Fire Department continues to reinspect the remaining schools, more schools will be added to the 'passed' list," Ms. Lofton said.

Typical violations on the latest list include broken fire doors, broken windows, cracked walls and ceilings and improper use of electrical cords. Ms. Lofton said the school system has trained principals to spot violations and instructed them to correct those violations they have control over, such as blocked doors.

Ms. Lofton said the money to fix violations will come from the $16.5 million the system has left in its capital improvements budget. The schools spent $5.5 million to fix fire-code violations last fall.

The city is reinspecting its schools and repairing fire-code violations to prepare for an April 24 hearing before Judge Kaye K. Christian of the D.C. Superior Court. The judge then will begin a school-by-school review to decide which schools are safe.

City schools opened three days late in September because of the last round of fire-code violations. Officials also eliminated another seven days at the end of the school year because of budget cuts.

Superintendent Franklin L. Smith has said he expects 90 percent of the violations to be fixed by April 24. But other school officials are worried the city will have to shut schools yet again.

The Washington Times, April 5, 1995

"I am very, very concerned," said Board of Education President Wilma Harvey. Shutting schools would be a disaster for the District's 81,000 public school students, she said last week.

Alfred Mamlet, attorney for the advocacy group that first raised the fire-safety issue, Parents United for the D.C. Schools, said the organization does not want to see schools closed but knows the possibility is real.

"Even if 90 percent of violations are fixed, I think [the court hearing] is going to be difficult," Mr. Mamlet said.

The hearing could stretch for days, as a similar hearing did last summer, he said.

"Eight thousand violations doesn't bode for a short hearing," he noted.

The Fire Department must file another report on the safety of the schools April 14.

The city's rush to repair fire-code violations began with a lawsuit Parents United filed nearly three years ago.

Only these D.C. schools - 46 out of 164 - are free of fire-code violations, say school officials, who add that half the 8,000 violations found by the Fire Department over the last six months have been corrected.

Eight Public School Teachers Finalists for Presidential Awards

Eight D.C. public school teachers have been selected as 1996 state level finalists for the Presidential Awards for Excellence in Science and Mathematics Teaching. The national awards are given to those who have shown leadership and have significantly improved students' math and science skills.

The finalists for science are Karyn Barra, of Amidon Elementary School, Almetta Hall, of Wilkinson Elementary School, and Charles Mercer, of Burrville Elementary School. The math finalists are Delores McClain, of Hine Junior High School, Cash Williams, of Patricia Roberts Harris Educational Center, Brenda Thomas, of Bowen Elementary School, and Janice Timmons, of Rudolph Elementary School. Each teacher will be given $ 750 and will compete for four slots to be named in October.

Library Holds Job Workshops for Seniors

The D.C. public library system is holding a two-part workshop for seniors who want to enhance their job search skills or supplement their retirement income. The Employment Information Workshops for Senior Adults are sponsored by the library's Washington Lifelong Learning Center.

The first session, "Older Workers Employment and Training Workshop," presented by the D.C. Office on Aging, will be held Tuesday from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. The following Tuesday, the American Association of Retired Persons will present the second session, "Senior Environmental Employment Program Workshop," from 11 a.m. to noon. Both workshops will be in room 315 of the Martin Luther King Memorial Library, 901 G St. NW.

The library will also hold an information session for adults who are preparing for the General Equivalency Diploma or who would like to improve their reading skills. The office of Adult Education will hold the session, titled "Back to School: Getting Your GED," on Tuesday from 6:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. in room A-9 of the Martin Luther King Memorial Library.

All activities are free.

4 Students Receive Naval Research Awards

Four students from Ballou Senior High School received the 1996 Annual Naval Research Laboratory-Frank W. Ballou Senior High School Award for Personal Excellence last month. The award recognizes achievement in math and science as well as citizenship and interpersonal skills.

The Washington Post, August 15, 1996

The winners from the senior high were freshman Rasheeda Allen, who won in the math category, and senior Erika Gregory, who won for science. The winners from Ballou Math-Science Academy were senior Haniyyah Ludd in the math category and junior Lena Gamble in the science category. Each student received a certificate and a calculator.

Senior Awarded Press Club Scholarship

Rhonda E. Henderson, who graduated from Banneker Senior High School, was awarded the National Press Club's $ 10,000 Ellen Persina Journalism Scholarship for Minorities for 1996.

The award is given to high school seniors who intend to pursue a career in journalism. Henderson, who was the editor of her school's newspaper, plans to attend Columbia College in New York City and major in English.

LAWTON CHILES
GOVERNOR

STATE OF FLORIDA

Office of the Governor

THE CAPITOL
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA 32399-0001

GOVERNOR CHILES PROMOTES READING; Calls on Lawmakers to Help Children Read By End of First Grade

ORLANDO -- Calling reading the "foundation for learning," Governor Lawton Chiles today met with Orlando-area school children participating in Orange County's Reading Recovery program. During the visit to Rock Lake Elementary School, Governor Chiles urged Florida lawmakers to help implement the Reading Recovery program in all Florida school districts.

"Reading is the ticket to a world full of opportunity for our children. It is an essential tool that helps our kids move to the top of the class," Governor Chiles said.

~~"Florida can't afford to leave any child behind. We must make a commitment that every child will complete the first grade knowing how to read."~~

Reading Recovery is an early intervention program that provides one-on-one individualized instruction for first-graders who need help learning to read. The Orange County public school system has moved forward to implement the Reading Recovery program in its schools by using federal Title I funding. Since 1993-94, Orange County's Reading Recovery program has served approximately 1,000 children.

The Governor's 1997-98 Budget proposal earmarks $4 million as state matching grant funds to implement the initial phase of the Reading Recovery program in Florida's school districts. Additional request of $10 million in supplemental budget

Governor Chiles noted that the state spends $57 million per year to remediate students at the community college level who don't have adequate reading, writing and math skills. The Governor said promoting reading by the end of first grade is an effective way to address this problem.

Dale Carnegie

Carnegie (1888-1955), born in Maryville Missouri, started out as a travelling salesman. He began teaching public speaking at a New York YMCA in 1912. His book Art of Public Speaking was published in 1915. He became a well known public speaker, and a pioneer in personality development, eventually teaching private courses and creating a chain of schools is perhaps. He is perhaps best known for his 1936 book "How to Win Friends and Influence People", which has sold over 10 million copies in 30 languages.

- ☐ The ideas I stand for are not mine. I borrowed them from Socrates. I swiped them from Chesterfield. I stole them from Jesus. And I put them in a book. If you don't like their rules, whose would you use?
 - ☐ First ask yourself: What is the worst that can happen? Then prepare to accept it. Then proceed to improve on the worst.

Sir Winston Churchill

Sir Winston Leonard Spencer Churchill (1874-1965), was an author, orator, statesman, member of Parliament, cabinet secretary, and the British Prime Minister who lead England through the trying years of World War II. His inspirational speaking held his country together through the 'blitz' of German bombardment, while his negotiating skills held together the shaky alliance between the US and Russia. After the war, he coined the phrase 'iron curtain' to describe Soviet control of eastern Europe. Churchill was knighted for his service and awarded the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1953 for his book "The Second World War."

- ☐ An appeaser is one who feeds a crocodile, hoping it will eat him last.
- ☐ I have never accepted what many people have kindly said—namely that I inspired the nation. Their will was resolute and remorseless, and as it proved, unconquerable. It fell to me to express it. - on his 80th birthday, address to Parliament 11/30/54
- ☐ Meeting Franklin Roosevelt was like opening your first bottle of champagne; knowing him was like drinking it.
- ☐ If the Almighty were to rebuild the world and asked me for advice, I would have English Channels round every country. And the atmosphere would be such that anything which attempted to fly would be set on fire.
- ☐ “No comment” is a splendid expression. I am using it again and again.
- ☐ My most brilliant achievement was my ability to be able to persuade my wife to marry me.
- ☐ If you have an important point to make, don't try to be subtle or clever. Use a pile driver. Hit the point once. Then come back and hit it again. Then hit it a third time—a tremendous whack.

Albert Einstein

Einstein (1879-1955), born in Ulm, Germany, was perhaps the greatest theoretical physicists of all time. While teaching at a Swiss university, Einstein worked as a patent clerk in Berne and published six important papers in physics. His work contributed greatly to the understanding of matter and energy, and proposed the now famous relationship between mass and energy, $E=Mc^2$. He is perhaps best known for his Theory of Relativity. Einstein won the Nobel Prize in Physics in 1922 for his work on the Photoelectric Effect. Leaving Nazi Germany in 1933 to escape increasing anti-semitism, Einstein accepted an invitation to the Institute for Advanced Studies at Princeton, New Jersey, where he spent the rest of his life. Although a pacifist, he was instrumental in convincing President Roosevelt to pursue atomic weapons to hasten the end of World War II.

(Einstein is perhaps the most quoted figure on the internet)

- ☐ A photograph never grows old. You and I change, people change all through the months and years, but a photograph always remains the same. How nice to look at a photograph of mother or father taken many years ago. You see them as you remember them. But as people live on, they change completely. That is why I think a photograph can be kind.

Dwight D. Eisenhower

Eisenhower (1890-1969) was born in Denison, Texas. He graduated from West Point in 1915, became a captain during World War I, and served under General Douglas MacArthur in the 1930's. After US entry into World War II he was selected as commander of US forces in Europe, and led unvasions of North Africa and Italy. He planned and led the Allied invasion of Europe. After the war he succeeded General George C. Marshall as Army Chief of Staff, then retired to become president of Columbia University. In 1951 he returned to service as supreme commander of NATO, and in 1952 'Ike' ran for election and became the 34th US President.

- ☐ I hate war as only a soldier who has lived it can, only as one who has seen its brutality, its futility, its stupidity.
- ☐ An intellectual is a man who takes more words than necessary to tell more than he knows.
- ☐ Whatever America hopes to bring to pass in the world must first come to pass in the heart of America. - from his Inaugural address 1/20/53
- ☐ Farming looks mighty easy when your plow is a pencil and you're a thousand miles from the cornfield.- from an address at Peoria, IL 9/25/56
- ☐ The problem in defense is how far you can go without destroying from within what you are trying to defend from without.
- ☐ Leadership is the art of getting someone else to do something you want done because he wants to do it.
- ☐ The most terrible job in warfare is to be a second lieutenant leading a platoon when you are on the battlefield. - 3/17/54

Henry Ford

Ford (1863–1947). born near Dearborn, Michigan, was an American industrialist without equal. After starting work as a machinist, and becoming chief engineer at Thomas Edison's Edison Illuminating Co., he went on to found the Ford Motor Company in 1903. While he was not the first to invent an automobile, Ford was the first to make use of assembly lines - allowing cars to be mass produced at affordable prices. Over 15 million of his original "Model T" cars were sold, and the industry he created has had a pronounced effect on the face of the planet.

- ☐ History is more or less bunk.
- ☐ Everything comes to him who hustles while he waits.
- ☐ Failure is only the opportunity to begin again more intelligently.
- ☐ Whether you think you can or think you can't -- you are right.
- ☐ It is not the employer who pays wages -- he only handles the money. It is the product that pays wages.
- ☐ A bore is a person who opens his mouth and puts his feats in it.

- ☐ If money is your hope for independence you will never have it. The only real security that a man will have in this world is a reserve of knowledge, experience, and ability.
 - ☐ Business is never so healthy as when, like a chicken, it must do a certain amount of scratching for what it gets.
 - ☐ The highest use of capital is not to make more money, but to make money do more for the betterment of life.
 - ☐ There is one rule for the industrialist and that is: Make the best quality of goods possible at the lowest cost possible, paying the highest wages possible.
 - ☐ A business that makes nothing but money is a poor kind of business.
 - ☐ Anyone who stops learning is old, whether at twenty or eighty. Anyone who keeps learning stays young. The greatest thing in life is to keep your mind young.

Benjamin Franklin

Franklin (1706-1790), born in Boston, Massachusetts, was an American author, printer, inventor, scientist, publisher, printer, and diplomat. He was truly a man of many talents. Franklin was known for his wit and humor, much of which was published in Poor Richard's Almanac, and for his proof that lightning was a form of electricity by experimenting with a kite in a thunderstorm. He played a pivotal role in the revolutionary and formative years of the United States. He helped draft the Declaration of Independence in 1776, represented the US in France during the war, and was involved in negotiating the peace with Britain in 1781. He was a stabilizing figure at the Constitutional Convention in 1787. Franklin founded the world's first public fire department, the first public lending library, and what later became the University of Pennsylvania.

- ☐ Wise men don't need advice. Fools won't take it.
- ☐ Either write something worth reading or do something worth writing.
- ☐ The world is full of fools and faint hearts; and yet everyone has courage enough to bear the misfortunes, and wisdom enough to manage the affairs, of his neighbor.
- ☐ Any fool can criticize, condemn, and complain, and most fools do.
- ☐ Beware of little expenses. A small leak will sink a big ship.
- ☐ Blessed is he who expects nothing, for he will never be dissatisfied.
- ☐ Wealth is not his who has it but his who enjoys it.
- ☐ Creditors have better memories than debtors.

- ☐ He was so learned that he could name a horse in nine languages; so ignorant that he bought a cow to ride on.
 - ☐ If a man could have half his wishes he could double his troubles.
 - ☐ Guests, like fish, begin to smell after three days.
 - ☐ Who is wise? He that learns from everyone. Who is powerful? He that governs his passions. Who is rich? He who is content. Who is that? Nobody.
 - ☐ He that is of the opinion money will do everything may well be suspected of doing everything for money.

Thomas Jefferson

Jefferson (1743–1826), born in Goochland, Virginia, was a philosopher, architect, statesman, and third president of the United States. He also served as governor of Virginia, minister to France, secretary of state, and vice president. Jefferson is best known for being the primary author of the Declaration of Independence, and for the Louisiana purchase, which doubled the size of the country. He spent his years after the presidency establishing the University of Virginia.

- ☐ We hold these truths to be self-evident: That all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.
- ☐ Eternal Vigilance is the price of liberty.
- ☐ No man will ever bring out of the Presidency the reputation which carries him into it.
- ☐ Information is the currency of democracy.
- ☐ The most valuable of all talents is never using two words when one will do.
- ☐ When angry, count ten before you speak; if very angry, one hundred.
- ☐ Honesty is the first chapter of the book of wisdom.
- ☐ I like the dreams of the future better than the history of the past.
- ☐ Whenever the people are well informed, they can be trusted with their own government; that whenever things get so far wrong as to attract their notice, they may be relied on to set them to rights.
- ☐ It is part of the American character to consider nothing as desperate - to surmount every difficulty by resolution and contrivance.

by resolution and contrivance.

John F. Kennedy

While it was exceptionally brief, Kennedy's (1917-1963) time on the world stage as US President captivated the nation, and in some ways the world, as none other ever has.

- ☐ It is time for a new generation of leadership, to cope with new problems and new opportunities. For there is a new world to be won. (July 4, 1960)
 - ☐ The New Frontier I speak of is not a set of promises--it is a set of challenges. It sums up not what I intend to offer the American people, but what I intend to ask of them.
 - ☐ For those to whom much is given, much is required. (Jan 9, 1961)
 - ☐ Let us never negotiate out of fear, but let us never fear to negotiate.
 - ☐ If a free society cannot help the many who are poor, it cannot save the few who are rich. (Inaugural Address, Jan 20, 1961)
 - ☐ All this will not be finished in the first one hundred days. Nor will it be finished in the first one thousand days, nor in the life of this Administration, nor even perhaps in our lifetime on this planet. But let us begin. (Inaugural Address, Jan 20, 1961)
 - ☐ And so, my fellow Americans, ask not what your country can do for you; ask what you can do for your country. (Inaugural Address, Jan 20, 1961)
 - ☐ I think this is the most extraordinary collection of talent, of human knowledge, that has ever been gathered together at the White House, with the possible exception of when Thomas Jefferson dined alone. (Address to Nobel Prizewinners, 4/62)
 - ☐ Every American ought to have the right to be treated as he would wish to be treated, as one would wish his children to be treated. This is not the case. (June 12, 1963)

Martin Luther King, Jr.

Minister, speaker, and civil rights activist, King (1929-1968) founded the Southern Christian Leadership Conference and effectively promoted the cause of equal rights through nonviolent demonstration. Some 200,000 people joined him in the "March on Washington" in 1963. He was the youngest person ever to receive the Nobel Peace Prize in 1964.

- ☐ Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere.
 - ☐ Darkness can not drive out darkness; only light can do that. Hate cannot drive out hate; only love can do that.
 - ☐ Now, I say to you today my friends, even though we face the difficulties of today and tomorrow, I still have a dream. It is a dream deeply rooted in the American dream. I have a dream that one day this nation will rise up and live out the true meaning of its creed: - 'We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal.'
 - ☐ Nothing in the world is more dangerous than sincere ignorance and conscientious stupidity.
 - ☐ If a man is called to be a streetsweeper, he should sweep streets even as Michelangelo painted, or Beethoven played music, or Shakespeare wrote poetry. He should sweep streets so well that all the hosts of heaven and earth will pause to say, here lived a great streetsweeper who did his job well.
 - ☐ We must use time creatively -- and forever realize that the time is always here to do great things.
 - ☐ We must combine the toughness of the serpent with the softness of the dove, a tough mind and a tender heart.
 - ☐ Hatred paralyzes life; love releases it. Hatred confuses life; love harmonizes it. Hatred darkens life; love illuminates it.
 - ☐ The ultimate measure of a man is not where he stands in moments of comfort and convenience, but where he stands at times of challenge and controversy.

Abraham Lincoln

Born in the backwoods of Kentucky in 1809, Lincoln (1809-1865) worked as a rail splitter, boatman, postmaster, surveyor, storekeeper, lawyer, state legislator, and congressman before gaining national attention during debates for election to the US Senate. When he was elected the 16th US President, seven states had already seceded from the Union, to be followed by four more. He guided the US through five years of traumatic civil war and issued the Emancipation Proclamation to outlaw slavery in the United States. His Gettysburg Address, written on the trainride to the battlefield, is still considered a masterpiece.

- ☐ Nearly all men can stand adversity, but if you want to test a man's character, give him power.
- ☐ The best thing about the future is that it comes only one day at a time.
- ☐ I don't think much of a man who is not wiser today than he was yesterday.
- ☐ What kills a skunk is the publicity it gives itself

- ☐ Whenever I hear anyone arguing for slavery, I feel a strong impulse to see it tried on him personally.
 - ☐ If you once forfeit the confidence of your fellow citizens, you can never regain their respect and esteem. You may fool all of the people some of the time; you can even fool some of the people all the time; but you can't fool all of the people all of the time.
 - ☐ I don't know who my grandfather was; I am much more concerned to know what his grandson will be.
 - ☐ Force is all-conquering, but its victories are short-lived.
 - ☐ Always bear in mind that your own resolution to succeed is more important than any other one thing.
 - ☐ Tact is the ability to describe others as they see themselves.
 - ☐ It has been my experience that folks who have no vices have very few virtues.
 - ☐ No man has a good enough memory to make a successful liar.
 - ☐ When you have got an elephant by the hind legs and he is trying to run away, it's best to let him run.
 - ☐ Am I not destroying my enemies when I make friends of them?
 - ☐ Fourscore and seven years ago our fathers brought forth upon this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal. . . . We here highly resolve that the dead shall not have died in vain, that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom; and that government of the people, by the people, and for the people, shall not perish from the earth

Vince Lombardi

Vincent Thomas Lombardi (1913-1970), born in New York City, exemplified the drive and determination he instilled in his players. He played college and professional football and coached at the high school, college, and professional level. Under his leadership the Green Bay Packers won five national championships in US professional football in the 1960's, dominating the sport.

- ☐ The quality of a person's life is in direct proportion to their commitment to excellence, regardless of their chosen field of endeavor.
- ☐ Football is a game that requires the constant conjuring of animosity. - New York Times, 12/10/67
- ☐ If you aren't fired with enthusiasm, you will be fired with enthusiasm.

- ☐ Some people try to find things in this game that don't exist but football is only two things—blocking and tackling.
 - ☐ It's not whether you get knocked down, it's whether you get up.
 - ☐ The harder you work, the harder it is to surrender.
 - ☐ Winning is a habit. Unfortunately, so is losing.
 - ☐ The spirit, the will to win, and the will to excel are the things that endure. These qualities are so much more important than the events that occur.
 - ☐ Winning is not a sometime thing; it's an all-the-time thing.
 - ☐ A school without football is in danger of deteriorating into a medieval study hall.
 - ☐ Football is like life -- it requires perserverence, self-denial, hard work, sacrifice, dedication and respect for authority.

Golda Meir

Meir (1898–1978), born in Kiev, Russia, was a founder of the state of Israel and served as its labor minister, foreign minister, and then prime minister from 1969-1974. While in office she strove for diplomatic settlements to arab/israeli conflicts.

- ☐ It's no accident many accuse me of conducting public affairs with my heart instead of my head. Well, what if I do? ... Those who don't know how to weep with their whole heart don't know how to laugh either.
- ☐ You cannot shake hands with a clenched fist.
- ☐ I can honestly say that I was never affected by the question of the success of an undertaking. If I felt it was the right thing to do, I was for it regardless of the possible outcome.
- ☐ Let me tell you something that we Israelis have against Moses. He took us 40 years through the desert in order to bring us to the one spot in the Middle East that has no oil! - New York Times, 6//10/73
- ☐ We do not rejoice in victories. We rejoice when a new kind of cotton is grown and when strawberries bloom in Israel.
- ☐ Old age is like a plane flying through a storm. Once you're aboard ther's nothing you can do.
- ☐ A leader who does not hesitate before he sends his nation into battle is not fit to be a leader.

Norman Vincent Peale

A Methodist minister, Peale, born in Bowersville, Ohio, made effective use of radio, television, and newspapers to promote his ideas and philosophy - perhaps best described in his best known book - The Power of Positive Thinking.

- ☐ Any fact facing us is not as important as our attitude toward it, for that determines our success or failure.
 - ☐ The trouble with most of us is that we would rather be ruined by praise than saved by criticism.
 - ☐ Getting people to like you is merely the other side of liking them. - from The Power of Positive Thinking
 - ☐ There is a real magic in enthusiasm. It spells the difference between mediocrity and accomplishment.
 - ☐ Believe you are defeated, believe it long enough, and it is likely to become a fact.
 - ☐ Plan your work for today and every day, then work your plan.
 - ☐ Your enthusiasm will be infectious, stimulating and attractive to others. They will love you for it. They will go for you and with you.
 - ☐ Become a possibilitarian. No matter how dark things seem to be or actually are, raise your sights and see possibilities -- always see them, for they're always there.
 - ☐ We tend to get what we expect.
 - ☐ Every problem has in it the seeds of its own solution. If you don't have any problems, you don't get any seeds.
 - ☐ We struggle with the complexities and avoid the simplicities.

From Famous Black Quotations

"A man who will not labor to gain his rights, is a man who would not, if he had them, prize and defend them."

--Frederick Douglass

"If there is no struggle, there is no progress. Those who profess to favor freedom, and yet deprecate agitation, are men who want crops without plowing up the ground. They want rain without thunder and lightning. They want the ocean without the awful roar of its many waters. This struggle may be a moral one; or it may be a physical one; or it may be both moral and physical; but it must be a struggle. Power concedes nothing without a demand.

--Frederick Douglass

"Education remains the key to both economic and political empowerment."

--Barbara Jordan

"We cannot silence the voices that we do not like hearing. We can, however, do everything in our power to make certain that other voices are heard."

--Deborah Prothrow-Stith

☐ Neither a wise nor a brave man lies down on the tracks of history to wait for the train of the future

I love mankind; it's people I can't stand.
--Charles Schultz, Creator of "Peanuts"

So live, that when thy summons comes to join
The innumerable caravan which moves
To that mysterious realm where each shall take
His chamber in the silent halls of death,
Thou go not, like the quarry-slave at night,
Scourged to his dungeon, but sustained and soothed
By an unfaltering trust, approach thy grave
Like one that wraps the drapery of his couch
About him, and lies down to pleasant dreams.

--Thanatopsis, William Cullen Bryant

The quality of mercy is not strain'd,
It droppeth as the gentle rain from heaven
Upon the place beneath. It is twice blest:
It blesseth him that gives and him that takes.
'T is mightiest in the mightiest: it becomes
The throned monarch better than his crown;
His sceptre shows the force of temporal power,
The attribute to awe and majesty,
Wherein doth sit the dread and fear of kings;
But mercy is above this sceptred sway,
It is enthroned in the hearts of kings,
It is an attribute to God himself;
And earthly power doth then show likest God's,
When mercy seasons justice. Therefore, Jew,
Though justice be thy plea, consider this,
That in the course of justice none of us
Should see salvation: we do pray for mercy;
And that same prayer doth teach us all to render
The deeds of mercy.

--The Merchant of Venice, Act iv. Sc. 1, William Shakespeare

Our revels now are ended. These our actors,
As I foretold you, were all spirits, and
Are melted into air, into thin air:
And, like the baseless fabric of this vision,
The cloud-capp'd towers, the gorgeous palaces,
The solemn temples, the great globe itself,
Yea, all which it inherit, shall dissolve,
And, like this insubstantial pageant faded,
Leave not a rack behind. We are such stuff
As dreams are made on; and our little life
Is rounded with a sleep.
